Section A applies, to the extent applicable, to all accounts with and all facilities and services provided by us.

A. GENERAL

1. Opening an account

- 1.1 Please complete and sign our forms and specimen signature cards and, if requested, provide satisfactory references. You agree to provide us with satisfactory identity, occupation and other documents. We may refuse your application without giving any reason. You will, if requested, place a minimum deposit on opening your account.
- 1.2 You confirm that all information given to us at any time are, to your best knowledge and belief, true and accurate. You will promptly notify us of any change of your information registered with us.

2. Application for a service

- 2.1 Before you can access a service, please complete and sign our application form. We may refuse your application without giving any reason.
- 2.2 You may be required to pre-register with us the account(s) which may be accessed on a service, and the accounts (yours or a third party's) to which funds may be transferred.

3. Your instructions

- 3.1 You will give instructions to us in writing. We may at our discretion and without liability act on an oral instruction. In particular, transfers between accounts in the same name will be valid without any written confirmation.
- 3.2 We need not act on a written instruction unless it is signed in accordance with your mandate and specimen signature with us.
- 3.3 A change in your mandate or specimen signature is only effective after a reasonable time after we have received actual notice of the change in a manner acceptable to us. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we are authorized to honour any instruction dated prior to the change of signature and subsequently presented.
- 3.4 You authorize your authorized representatives (“Authorized Representatives”) to give us instructions of any nature relating to your accounts and our services. You agree that any instructions given or purported to be given to us by the Authorized Representatives shall at all times be binding on you whether or not the instructions were actually authorized.
- 3.5 The Authorized Representatives shall have full authority to deal with us until we have received effective written revocation of their authority pursuant to such procedures as we may prescribe and until we have been able to act on the revocation.
- 3.6 You agree to ratify all acts and instructions given by the Authorized Representatives.
- 3.7 Your instructions, as understood and acted on by us, are binding on you. We are not responsible to verify the identity or authority of the person giving any instruction or the authenticity of any instruction. We may at our discretion require evidence of identity from any person.
- 3.8 We may regard your instructions as received by us (including by our computer or message recording system) as being what you intended to send. We may regard your instruction (which duplicates another instruction) as a separate instruction, unless we actually knew that it was a duplicate.
- 3.9 In general, an instruction once given and accepted cannot be altered or cancelled, except in respect of a securities transaction which has not yet been effected.
- 3.10 We need not act on any instruction if it is not, in our opinion, practicable or reasonable to do so. We may decline to act on your instructions without giving any reason and without any liability.
- 3.11 If an instruction is received outside our business hours for relevant transactions, your account may be debited on the same day, but the instruction may not be processed until our next banking day.
- 3.12 An instruction may be partially executed if it cannot be fully executed. An instruction or part not executed by the day's close of business (or, if earlier, close of trading) will lapse, unless otherwise agreed.

4. Password

- 4.1 On accepting your application or when a service is offered by us, we will supply you with a password to access the service. One password may be used to access all your accounts through the same service or medium. Different passwords with different levels of authority may, when this service is available, be generated by your master password for business accounts. “Password” includes personal identification number (PIN), logon ID, login password and any code, number, card, security token or any one-time password (OTP).
- 4.2 Your password is an important means of protection for you. You will keep it secret to yourself (or, if you are a corporate body, your Authorized Representatives only). You will use all reasonable care to prevent unauthorized use of your password. Your password may be sent to you at your own risk. Please change your password after you have accessed a service for the first time.
- 4.3 You will contact us as soon as reasonably practicable by telephone (Report Loss Hotline: 852 3711 7900) or by any other method notified by us if you think or suspect that your password has been lost or stolen or that any unauthorized person knows or has it. You will confirm your report to us in writing within 24 hours of the occurrence of such an event. We may without liability take any action following receipt of a report reasonably believed by us to be genuine.
- 4.4 We may regard an instruction given by any person with the use of your password as conclusively binding on you. This is so notwithstanding different requirements in your mandate or other arrangements. Your liability continues, when you notify us to terminate your use of a service, until we have a reasonable opportunity to terminate access by your password. If the option is provided by us, a password for one channel may be used to apply for other services or for use on other channels, and any such application is binding on you.
- 4.5 You will be liable for all losses if you try to defraud us or have been grossly negligent, or allowed a third party to use your password, or failed to comply with your obligations under Conditions 4.2 and 4.3. You would not otherwise be responsible for any direct loss suffered by you as a result of unauthorized transactions conducted through your account. This Condition does not apply (a) unless the unauthorized instruction was given electronically, (b) to you unless you are private individual (excluding sole traders, partnerships, clubs and societies) or (c) to unauthorized transactions conducted through plastic cards which may be used to pay for goods and services or to withdraw cash.
- 4.6 An instruction given by the use of your password is valid and binding on you, although your mandate for the account may require a particular signature or joint signatures, or different signatures may be specified for different accounts.
- 4.7 All holders of an account are jointly and severally responsible for an instruction given by the use of a password.
- 4.8 Changes in the Authorized Representatives of your account will not affect operation by your password. If you wish, you must change your password immediately.

5. Deposits

- 5.1 We may require a minimum balance to be maintained in your account over such periods as determined by us. Balances below the minimum will not earn interest, and may be subject to a charge in the amount determined by us. We may limit the amount that may be deposited.
- 5.2 Deposits not made in cleared funds may not be drawn or used and do not become effective until the proceeds have been unconditionally received by us. Such deposits are accepted at our discretion and only for collection. Our and third parties' charges will be debited from the collection proceeds. Acting reasonably, we are not liable for any loss or destruction in the process of collection or otherwise or for any loss arising from any failure or delay to present an item.
- 5.3 Items drawn on overseas drawees may be given immediate value subject to a charge in the amount determined by us (which includes interest to cover the period until cleared funds are received). Deposits funded by overseas items may not be withdrawn once deposited until after a period determined by us.
- 5.4 We may recover from you any loss arising from the non-payment of an item including any drawing against the item. We may reverse any credit entry and levy a charge. We may, at your risk, return an unpaid item by post to you.
- 5.5 Deposits in foreign currency notes are at our discretion and subject to charges.
- 5.6 Items including cash deposits received after our daily cut-off time are deemed to be processed on the following banking day or as otherwise required by any applicable clearing house rules.
- 5.7 Deposit by a cheque is accepted only for collection and may not be withdrawn or used until cleared funds have been unconditionally received by us. Acting reasonably, we are not liable for any loss or destruction in the process of collection or for any loss arising from any failure or delay in presenting a cheque. Unless specifically instructed, we will not arrange for protest or similar actions to be taken. We may recover from you any loss and reasonable expense arising from the non-payment of a cheque whether or not it has been drawn against. We may reverse any credit entry and levy charges. We may return an unpaid cheque by post to you at your risk.

6. Withdrawals / Funds transfers

- 6.1 Withdrawals can only be made against cleared funds.
- 6.2 Withdrawals in cash or by electronic or other automated means are subject to the limits determined by us. An instruction to transfer funds received after our daily cut-off time will be debited to your account at the time the instruction is received, and be processed for transfer on our next banking day. A payment for same day value is also subject to applicable cut-off time at its destination. Date of value is dependent on the geographical location of the destination and is subject to our discretion. We may from time to time vary the daily cut-off time without notice or responsibility to you.
- 6.3 We need not make any payment from your account if there are insufficient available funds for a full payment or if our requirements (including amount limits or restrictions as to the office from which withdrawals may be made) are not complied with. If a transfer is made without sufficient available funds, you will repay to us on demand the resulting debit together with interest thereon at the rate determined by us.
- 6.4 A withdrawal by a withdrawal instruction purporting to be signed by you is deemed to be made to you personally.
- 6.5 Funds will be remitted to a foreign place in the particular currency as instructed by you. Another currency conversion may take place at the payment destination according to the practice of our correspondent or the beneficiary's bank. A draft or cashier order may be drawn on another city by reason of our operational requirements. The holder of the draft or cashier order is responsible for due presentment and protest. Charges will be deducted before payment to the beneficiary. You remain responsible for all charges of our correspondents, agents and ourselves. All charges paid are not refundable. We and our correspondents and agents owe no duty to the beneficiary and any nominated order party.
- 6.6 Payment of a draft or cashier order may be refused if it has in any way been altered or mutilated.
- 6.7 Requests to stop or vary a payment or for a refund will only be processed after production of satisfactory document of identity and authorization including evidence of loss (where applicable) and an indemnity satisfactory to us. We are not responsible if the payment cannot be stopped or varied. A refund may only be made after our correspondent has confirmed that the payment instruction has been effectively cancelled. A refund may be made in Hong Kong dollars at our buying rate for the payment currency if the payment currency is not Hong Kong dollars, less all charges.
- 6.8 We may at our discretion repay the credit balance in your account together with interest in the currency of your account or in Hong Kong dollars or both. We may make payment by telegraphic transfer or by a draft drawn on a bank in the country of the currency.
- 6.9 You agree to accept consequences arising from your own omission to give complete and accurate particulars of your identity including the loss of right for refund and that we shall not be accountable to you for the refund in the event that your identity cannot be verified to our satisfaction. We shall not be liable for any loss caused by any incorrect or incomplete information provided by you.
- 6.10 If the outward remittance cannot be processed by the details provided by you, we reserve the right not to accept an application for the purchase of the outward remittance at our sole discretion.
- 6.11 We may send any message relative to the telegraphic transfer in explicit language, code or cipher and at your sole risk. Acting reasonably, we shall not be liable for any delay, misunderstanding, misinterpretation, errors, neglect or default which may occur in the transmission of the message or otherwise.
- 6.12 Withdrawals of foreign currency notes (whether or not from a foreign currency account) are at our discretion and subject to charges.
- 6.13 If there are insufficient funds in your account to settle a foreign exchange transaction, we may at our option at any later time apply the full amount of the currency bought by you to purchase the currency ("Currency X") payable by you at our spot rate for selling Currency X at the time of such application. If the amount of Currency X so purchased is less than the amount payable by you under the foreign exchange transaction, you will on demand pay to us the shortfall. We are not liable for any loss suffered resulting directly or indirectly from any instructions not carried out by us due to insufficient funds in your account. Notwithstanding such shortage of funds, we may at our sole discretion carry out any instructions without prior approval from or notice to you, and you are fully responsible for any resulting overdraft, advance or debit.
- 6.14 Any rate or other quotation provided by us is only indicative, unless otherwise expressly stated, and may be changed without notice until we have confirmed acceptance of your offer. Unless otherwise expressly stated, the prices payable by you do not include, and you will in addition pay, applicable fees and expenses.
- 6.15 We are entitled to effect any payment and to require you to effect any payment in any currency as we may prescribe. Where a conversion of one currency into another currency is required, such conversion shall be effected at the rate determined by us to be prevailing in the relevant exchange market at the relevant time, such determination to be conclusive and binding on you. Acting reasonably, we are not liable for any exchange rate losses resulting from any such foreign exchange transactions and dealings.
- 6.16 It is your responsibility to determine independently market prices and rates, to verify any information and/or report before replying or acting on it and to seek independent professional advice on legal, tax and other issues in connection with information we provide, these Conditions, and any transactions and dealings.
- 6.17 Funds transfer between your accounts on any day may at our discretion be processed on the day or on the next banking day.
- 6.18 You confirm that your remittances of funds will comply with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements in the country where the remittance (or each part of it) is to be received.

7. Termination

- 7.1 You may terminate your account at any time when your account has a zero balance and no outstanding transactions and obligations, or terminate a service, by giving at least 30 days' prior written notice to us. Terminating a service will not by itself close your account with us. Where we have provided you with a security token, you must return the security token to us upon such termination.
- 7.2 We may at any time, by notice to you and without giving any reason, close your account or terminate a service. The notice may, if necessary, take effect immediately. We may hold any credit balance in your account for your collection, credit the relevant amount (less our charges) to your other account, or discharge all our obligations by mailing to you a cashier order for the relevant account (less our charges).
- 7.3 An account with zero balance may be closed by us without prior notice.
- 7.4 Termination of an account or service will not affect accrued rights or subsisting transactions. We remain authorized to settle any transaction entered into before termination. Conditions 8 (Interest / payment / delivery), 10 (Limit of our liability), 11 (Your indemnity), 12 (Set-off and lien), 15 (Information) and 16 (Evidence) will survive termination.

8. Interest / payment / delivery

- 8.1 Interest accrues on all sums owing from you from the due date or the date of advance to the date of actual repayment (before and after judgment) at the rate determined by us. Such interest is calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed over a 360 or 365 day year according to our practice of calculating interest for the relevant currency and is deemed to be compounded monthly or at the intervals determined by us.

- 8.2 You will on demand repay to us all sums owing from you (whether or not due) or the part demanded, with interest thereon.
- 8.3 Payments will in ordinary course be debited from the account designated by you for the purpose (including a sub-account) which is denominated in the same currency. This also applies to "holds" on funds in your accounts. We will determine whether you have a sufficient balance or overdraft by reference to your designated account (or sub-account) in the payment currency. However we may put a "hold" on amounts in other currencies. If necessary, we may (but are not obliged to) convert an amount received or to be paid from one currency into another at our spot rate. We may, for the purpose of a calculation, notionally convert an amount from one currency into another at our spot rate.
- 8.4 Payments will be made to you subject to applicable laws and regulations and any required deduction or withholding.
- 8.5 You will pay us in freely transferable and cleared funds and in the manner reasonably notified by us. Deliveries of any property by either party will be made in the manner reasonably notified by us.
- 8.6 If on any date amounts would be payable in the same currency under 2 or more transactions by each party, then on such date, each party's obligation to pay such amounts will, at our option, be discharged, and the party by whom the larger amount would otherwise be payable will pay to the other party the excess of such amount over the smaller amount.
- 8.7 Payments by you will be made to us without any set-off, counterclaim or condition and free and clear of all present and future taxes, withholdings or deductions. If you are compelled by law to make any withholding or deduction, the sum payable by you will be increased so that the net amount actually received by us is the amount we would have received if there had been no withholding or deduction. You will duly pay the withheld or deducted amount to the appropriate tax authority and provide us with evidence of payment.
- 8.8 Payments by you will be made in the currency of the relevant liability. Any sum received by us in another currency only constitutes a discharge of your liability to the extent of the net amount of the currency of your liability which we are able to purchase with the amount received as soon as it is practicable to do so. You will, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any judgment, indemnify us against any loss and reasonable expense.
- 8.9 Any sum received by us may be applied to reduce your liability in the order we deem appropriate, or be placed to a suspense account to preserve our right to prove for your entire liability.
- 8.10 We may, where necessary, convert one currency into another at our applicable exchange rate as determined by us.
- 8.11 A sum or an item received for your account may not be drawn against or used and does not earn interest until we have unconditionally received cleared funds or confirmed receipt of the item. We may debit your account with all losses and reasonable expenses, if the sum or item or part thereof is not actually received. You will bear the loss arising from any difference in exchange rates between the date of crediting your account and the date of the subsequent debit.
- 8.12 If not collected in person, your property and documents will be sent to you at your risk.
- 8.13 We may recover from you any erroneous payment.
- 8.14 In accordance with market practice, we may retain interest on amounts to be paid to you pending credit to your account, and on amounts to be paid on your behalf pending payment.
- 8.15 Any payment, delivery or determination, which would otherwise fall to be made on a non-banking day, will instead be made on our next banking day, unless otherwise agreed.
- 8.16 Cash will be paid to you after rounding down to the nearest ten cents (or, for Japanese yen or other foreign currency, to the nearest yen or unit in accordance with market practice). This constitutes full payment.
- 8.17 Unless otherwise agreed, any amount or item to be paid or delivered by us will only be paid or delivered in Hong Kong at our office at which the account is kept.

9. Statements of account

- 9.1 For some types of accounts, we will send you a statement of your account at regular intervals. We may issue interim statements. No statement will be sent for a period when there is no transaction in your account (or, in relation to securities, where a statement is not required pursuant to relevant regulation). Please advise us immediately if you have not received your statement within 14 days of the day when your statement is scheduled to have been sent out by us.
- 9.2 You agree to examine each statement of your account carefully on receipt. If you discover any error, discrepancy, claim or unauthorized debit, you will notify us as soon as reasonably practicable and, in any event, within 90 days of receipt of the statement.
- 9.3 If you fail to advise us as required by Condition 9.1 or 9.2, all entries in the statement are conclusive and binding on you. However, you are not responsible for unauthorized transactions arising from (a) forgery or fraud of a third party in relation to which we have failed to exercise reasonable care or (b) forgery, fraud, default or negligence of our employees or agents. This Condition does not apply unless you are private individual (excluding sole traders, partnerships, clubs and societies).
- 9.4 We may correct any entry in a statement caused by our error or omission.
- 9.5 Any document may be sent to any of your last known addresses.

10. Limit of our liability

- 10.1 Unless caused by our wilful misconduct or negligence, we are not liable for:
- (a) any instruction which is not actually received by us;
 - (b) any delay or interruption in accessing a service, or any failure to execute or error or delay in executing your instructions;
 - (c) any inability to access a service;
 - (d) any unauthorized interception, corruption, loss, error or delay of messages sent by us or our correspondent or agents through the internet, on telephone or by any other means, or any unauthorized access to a service or information;
 - (e) any malfunctioning or failure of a service, computer, software or communications facilities;
 - (f) any computer virus or similar problems in connection with a service; or
 - (g) any loss or damage arising from termination of your account or any service provided to you.
- 10.2 We are not liable for any loss caused by any act or omission of any government or third party, or any other circumstances beyond our control. We are however accountable to you for any complaints arising out of the handling of your information by our service providers or arising out of debt collection by third party agencies employed by us. We are not obliged to account to you if our relevant office or any correspondent or agent concerned is prevented from making payment to or for you.
- 10.3 We are in any event not liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising from the use of or inability to use a service.
- 10.4 Any information or recommendation provided by us is for your reference only. It is not an offer. We are not responsible for its accuracy, completeness or timeliness, or for any decision made with the information or recommendation. You acknowledge that we do not give any representation, guarantee or assurance as to any information or the outcome of any investment. Any price, rate or other quotation provided is only indicative, unless otherwise expressly stated, and may be changed without notice until we have confirmed acceptance of your offer. Unless otherwise expressly stated, the prices payable by you do not include, and you will in addition pay, applicable taxes, duties, levies, reasonable fees and expenses.
- 10.5 If we are found to be liable for any damages, our liability will be limited to the amount of the relevant transaction or, if less, your direct damages.
- 10.6 We are not liable for the act or omission of any third party including any goods or service provided by them. We may at your cost perform a service through a third party (and, if we do so, we will use reasonable efforts to appoint a reputable third party) and delegate our powers to a third party. We cannot be responsible to recover a payment you have made to another person, or to resolve a dispute between you and that person.
- 10.7 We need not verify the validity or genuineness of any documents and instruments which we reasonably believe to be genuine.
- 10.8 We do not guarantee receipt by you or us of any communications from or to our website or through other means, or the privacy or security of such communications during transmission. We will encrypt sensitive information such as personal information during transmission through the internet (but not emails).
- 10.9 In any event, our liability shall not exceed the amount of the relevant transaction or the amount of your direct damages, whichever is less.
- 10.10 Conditions 10 (Limit of our liability) and 11 (Your indemnity) apply to the extent permitted by applicable law. For example, in a case where the Control of Exemption Ordinance applies, Conditions 10 (Limit of our liability) and 11 (Your indemnity) will apply only in so far as they satisfy the requirement of reasonableness within the meaning of that Ordinance.

11. Your indemnity

- 11.1 In the absence of our wilful misconduct or negligence, you will indemnify us on demand against any claim, liability or loss, or reasonable expense arising from your instructions or transaction, your account, the provision of a service to you, or these Conditions, and against all expenses (including legal fees) in reasonable amounts and reasonably incurred in the exercise or enforcement of our rights including recovering any sum owing from you or obtaining any advice we consider necessary in relation to the forgoing.
- 11.2 You will indemnify us on demand against any claim, liability or loss, or reasonable expense, arising from any breach by you of these Conditions or the terms of a transaction, or any tax or other levy in connection with your account or a service.
- 11.3 We may employ third party agencies to collect overdue sums from you.

12. Set-off and lien

- 12.1 We may at any time, without prior notice, combine all or any of your accounts anywhere with us whether singly or jointly with others and all your liabilities (whether actual or contingent, primary or collateral, existing or future, matured or not, alone or jointly with others). For such purpose, we may convert any currency into any other currency at our spot rate, and reasonably estimate the amounts of future, contingent or unquantified liabilities. This is not intended to create a security interest.
- 12.2 We may apply any credit balance in your joint account to reduce any liability of one or more of the joint account holders to us.
- 12.3 We may debit one or more of your accounts with the amounts (or part thereof) payable by you.
- 12.4 You may not, without our consent, withdraw or otherwise deal with deposits and other sums payable by us, for so long as you have any present, future, actual or contingent liability (whether or not quantified) to us.
- 12.5 If you have any present, future, actual or contingent liability (whether or not quantified) to us, we may retain any property wherever deposited with or otherwise held by us for or in your name (alone or jointly with others) whether for safe custody or otherwise, and sell them or any part thereof at such price and on such terms as we determine whether by public auction, private treaty, tender or any other method reasonably determined by us. We may apply the net proceeds to reduce your liability.

13. Charges

- 13.1 We may levy any charges (including deposit charges and dormant account charges), fees and commissions in relation to your account or the provision of services to you. We may vary the amount of charges, fees or commissions, or their basis of calculation, upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice (or where a variation is not within our control, upon reasonable notice) to you. The current standard rates are set out in our schedule of fees published from time to time. The schedule of fees is available on request. All fees, charges and commissions payable to us shall be payable by you on demand.
- 13.2 Paid fees and charges are not refundable on early termination of a service. However if you terminate a service as a result of a change of these Conditions by us, we will refund a prorated portion of any fee expressed to be an annual or periodic fee paid for the service unless the amount to be refunded is minimal.

14. Changes

- 14.1 We may vary the services available to you, the manner of operations, the daily cut-off times, the minimum or maximum amount of an instruction, or a maximum limit per day, or suspend or withdraw any service, without notice or liability. We may change our business hours or the hours during which a service is available. Services are provided subject to the conditions determined by us.
- 14.2 We may change any terms or conditions applicable to any service at any time by notice to you. Thirty days' notice will be given to you before any variation of the terms and conditions which affects fees and charges and your liabilities or obligations takes effect, unless such changes are not within our control. Fourteen days' notice will be given of other variations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior notice of any change to the provisions of the equity-linked deposits will be given in any event.
- 14.3 You will abide by the latest current version of the terms and conditions applicable to any service, although you may have received a previous version at the time of your application.
- 14.4 We shall notify you of any material change to our name, business address, registration status with the Securities and Futures Commission or CE number, or other changes as required under applicable laws and regulations. You agree to notify us of any material change to the information provided by you. In particular, you shall notify us as soon as practicable of any change to your address, telephone number, facsimile number or e-mail address.

15. Information

- 15.1 We may use and disclose any information about you, your accounts, our services to you or any transaction with you (including, if you are an individual, your personal data) collected by us at any time for the purposes (including matching procedures, as defined in the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance) and to the persons (in or outside Hong Kong) as referred to in our current statement or policy on personal data.
- 15.2 You request us to contact you on any financial services we believe may be of interest to you.
- 15.3 You confirm that all information you give to us at any time is true and complete in all material respects. You will promptly notify us of any material change to that information. We are authorized to conduct credit and other enquiries to verify the information provided.
- 15.4 The ownership and all copyright and other intellectual property rights of any nature in or relating to our services, website, materials, software or documentation vest in us or, if provided by a third party, in that party. No right, licence or interest is granted to you except a licence to access solely for the purposes of our services.
- 15.5 In relation to any information or materials which you submit to us using our websites or through other means, you grant to us a worldwide royalty-free perpetual licence of any copyright and intellectual property rights in such information or materials for all purposes including the copying, transmission, distribution and publication thereof, unless restricted by applicable law. You agree that we shall not be under any obligation of confidentiality to you regarding any such information or materials unless otherwise expressly agreed or required by law.
- 15.6 You will not copy, disseminate, exploit or change any information (including software) provided by us or use them for any purposes other than for your own reference.

16. Evidence

- 16.1 Our records (whether in paper, microfilm, electronic or any other form) of transactions with you and messages sent to or received from you (including exchange rates) are, save to the extent of manifest error, conclusive and binding on you. You agree that they shall be admissible in the courts as evidence of the existence of the transactions and messages, and of the facts contained in them, to the extent permitted by applicable law.
- 16.2 Our statement as to a rate, calculation or an amount due from you is (in the absence of manifest error) conclusive and binding on you.
- 16.3 We may destroy any instruments or documents relating to your account after recording them in a manner determined by us. Copies of our record of your document will be supplied on payment of a reasonable charge. Records will only be retained for the period determined by us.

For your protection, please delete "or bearer" on and cross all cheques not personally delivered by you. Do not pre-sign a cheque in blank.
 - (f) Please apply for a new cheque book by presenting a duly completed and signed Cheque Book Application Form to us. We may, in our discretion, refuse to issue a cheque book.
 - (g) We may deliver a cheque book to you in person or, at your risk, hand it to the bearer of a Cheque Book Application Form or forward it by post to you according to your instructions.
 - (h) On receiving a new cheque book, please check the cheque serial numbers, account number, your printed name and the number of the cheques. Please promptly report any irregularities to us.
 - (i) Please keep your cheque books under lock.
2. If you wish to stop payment, please give us full details of the cheque. Please immediately report to us the loss of any cheque (signed, blank or cheque books). 4. If several cheques are presented for payment simultaneously, we may determine the order for payment at our discretion and without liability.
5. We may honour a cheque although your account will be overdrawn or an overdraft limit exceeded. We may levy a charge for a dishonoured cheque.
6. You may not overdraw your account or exceed an agreed overdraft limit without our prior agreement. Overdrafts are granted at our discretion. Interest and fees will be charged at the rate and in the manner we determine from time to time. We may at any time reduce, cancel, suspend or increase an overdraft facility, or demand immediate repayment of all outstanding amounts and interests.
7. We may at our discretion determine the maximum amount for which a cheque may be drawn.
8. We may on closing your account refuse, without liability, payment of any cheque subsequently presented.
9. You will return all unused cheques to us without delay on closure of your account.
10. You agree that:
 - (a) cheques drawn by you which have been paid may, after having been recorded in electronic form, be retained by the collecting bank or Hong Kong Interbank Clearing Limited ("HKICL") for such period as is stated in the rules relating to the operation of the Clearing House and after this, they may be destroyed by the collecting bank or HKICL as the case may be; and

 - (b) any other currency, interest will accrue on the basis of a 360 day year (or another basis we choose).
3. If a passbook is issued for your account:
 - (a) The passbook should be presented for every deposit and withdrawal. Please do not write any entry in the passbook. Please examine the passbook after each transaction and before leaving the counter to ensure that proper entries have been made. Please promptly inform us of any error.

- (b) If your passbook bears your black light signature, you may, at our discretion, make cash withdrawals from any of our branches in an amount not exceeding the maximum determined by us.
 - (c) The passbook is for your reference only and may not show the correct balance of your account as, for example, deposits or withdrawals may have been made without entry in the passbook. The balance of your account as shown in our records is the correct balance, except for any manifest error. The passbook should be presented to us when required for any interest or unposted items to be entered.
 - (d) Please keep your passbook under lock. Please immediately report loss of the passbook to us. We are not responsible for any payment made before we have a reasonable time to act on your report. A fresh passbook and account number may be issued subject to satisfactory indemnity, explanations and payment of our reasonable charges being given to us.

 - (b) an original debit slip signed by you or your Authorized Representative; and
 - (c) an original letter to us signed by you or an Authorized Representative authorizing him to make the withdrawal.
5. We may allow transactions to be carried out over the counter or otherwise without the passbook being produced.
6. Passbooks are our property. They are not transferable. You should not tamper with them in any way.
7. If your account is a statement account, a statement of account will be sent to you every month or at such intervals as determined by us.
8. We may charge reasonable fees or the interest rate applicable may be zero if your account balance is less than the minimum required by us, or if your account is inactive for such time as we notify. Restrictions may apply to an inactive account.
9. In accordance with market practice, we may levy charges on credit balance. If an account is closed within such period of time as set by us from time to time, we may charge a reasonable fee.

D. FIXED AND CALL DEPOSITS

1. Fixed (including swap) and call deposits may be made in the currency, minimum amounts and for the periods determined by us and as stated in a deposit confirmation issued by us.
2. Deposits in Hong Kong dollars may be made for same day value. Deposits in another currency may require 2 banking days' advance notice.
3. A deposit will be evidenced by a deposit confirmation issued by us. We may require surrender of the original confirmation in good order in order to withdraw the deposit. A new deposit confirmation will be issued for each renewal. Please examine deposit confirmations carefully and notify us immediately of any error.
4. Deposits may not be uplifted before maturity except at our discretion. Early uplift may result in no interest being payable, and may be subject to a charge in the amount determined by us.
5. A fixed deposit and interest thereon are payable at the end of the fixed period. If the deposit is denominated in a foreign currency, 2 banking days' notice to us is required for its uplift. If you have not given us instructions for withdrawal or renewal, interest will only be payable after maturity at our discretion and at the rate determined by us.
6. Call deposits are repayable at the end of the agreed notice period after you have given to us a withdrawal notice. Interest on call deposits is calculated at the rate, if any, determined by us for the call period on a daily basis and credited on the day the deposit is uplifted.
7. Interest on a deposit is only payable at maturity and is calculated on the principal amount at the agreed rate for the number of days from the effective date of the deposit up to but excluding the maturity date.
8. If a deposit would otherwise mature on a non-banking day, the deposit is repayable on the next banking day.
9. We may (but are not obliged to) pay interest on a matured deposit that is not renewed or withdrawn, at our savings account rate or any other rate determined by us or renew the deposit for the same period at the rate for similar deposits quoted by us at close of business on the renewal date. A deposit to be automatically renewed will carry interest at the rate for similar deposits quoted by us at close of business on the renewal date.

E. AUTOMATIC TELLER MACHINES ("ATM") SERVICE

- We may issue a card (the "Card") at our absolute discretion so that you may obtain access to your designated account through such Automatic Teller Machines ("ATM"), point of sale terminals and other devices as advised by us from time to time. A Personal Identification Number (PIN) will be issued to you for using your Card. Different Cards may be used with different networks in different places for different purposes, as advised by us from time to time. You will comply with the limits, guidelines and advice from time to time issued by us in respect of the use of a Card. A Card does not entitle you to credit.
2. Your Card may only be used by you (its named holder) and is not transferable. The Card is our property. You will surrender the Card to us on request. You will remain responsible for all transactions on your Card before its return to us.
 3. You authorize us to debit your relevant account with the amount of any transaction involving the use of the Card or PIN or both of them. You will designate a primary account to settle transactions effected through your Card. Where available, a secondary account may be designated and may in certain cases be in a currency different from that of the primary account. For a transaction effected through a Card which is denominated in a currency different from the currency of the relevant account linked to the Card, the transaction amount will be converted into the account currency at a rate determined by the network operator or by us. Such conversion will be conclusive and binding on you.
 4. The deposit of a cheque or cash into an ATM is subject to our verification, which will be binding on you except for any manifest error. If we are aware of a discrepancy, we will notify you as soon as practicable. Verification may not take place on the day of deposit, and you will not be able to withdraw or use the funds before they are credited to your account. Cash or cheques deposited after our daily cut-off time are deemed to be received on the following banking day. Deposit of coins into an ATM is not allowed.
 5. Withdrawals are subject to the limits set by us. An instruction to transfer funds received after our daily cut-off time may be debited to your account on the same day and processed for transfer on the next banking day. We need not make any payment from your account if there are insufficient available funds for a full payment. If a payment is made without sufficient available funds or beyond an overdraft limit, you will repay to us on demand the resulting debit together with interest thereon and charges.
 6. In addition to the provisions of Section A, you authorize us to use and disclose your information to the banks, operators and other persons involved in the ATM and point of sale systems.
 7. We may levy charges. A replacement Card may be issued subject to conditions and charges at the rate(s) published by us from time to time. A lost Card subsequently found may not be used without our prior agreement.
 8. We may at any time withdraw the Card or not renew a Card without giving a reason and without prior notice to you.
 9. Cancelling a card does not cancel the account.
 10. A customer advice issued by, and information shown on, an ATM or other terminal do not bind us.
 11. If we are a party to a shared electronic system, we will not avoid liability to you in respect of any loss arising from the use of the Card either caused or contributed by another party to the system.

- 1.5 Where your order is aggregated with those of other customers, we may allocate any Securities acquired amongst you, the other customers and us on such basis as we reasonably deem equitable.
- 1.6 Notwithstanding any other conditions hereof, you acknowledge that due to market conditions, instructions may not be able to be carried out by the Stock Broker, applications to the Fund Manager may be rejected by the Fund Manager (although it has been accepted by us), and applications for new issues may not be successful at all or only in part.
- 1.7 Where applicable, including in connection with any Fund, before giving any instruction to purchase or deal, you will have read, understood and agreed to be bound by the relevant offering and constitutive documents, application form and procedures. You will ensure that your instructions conform to the applicable requirements. We are not responsible to check if this is the case, and are authorized at our discretion to reject any instruction, to transmit it to the Fund Manager or other person as appropriate without change, or to make any necessary changes to conform with the applicable requirements, without reference to you.
- 1.8 You shall ensure that, at the time you instruct us to buy or sell Securities:
- (a) in the case of purchase, you have sufficient cleared funds in your Settlement Account or sufficient available Margin Facilities in your Margin Account to meet the cost of buying the Securities (including stamp duties, levies, commissions and all transaction-related charges and expenses);
 - (b) in the case of sale:
 - (i) you have deposited or arranged for the relevant Securities to be deposited with or transferred to us in time for settlement; and/or
 - (ii) you have duly signed or caused to be signed the instrument of transfer and sold notes or such other documents or evidence of title relating to such Securities as will enable the same to be freely transferred,
- in both cases, where the Securities are delivered to us in physical scrip form we may, in order to ascertain the genuineness of the Securities, before effecting the sale hold the Securities for a reasonable time or, after effecting the sale, hold the sale proceeds for a reasonable time before crediting the amount to your account. Short-selling is not allowed.

- 1.9 Immediately upon receipt of an instruction to buy or sell Securities, we may:
- (a) in the case of purchase, where you have a Cash Account, earmark or hold a sum against the credit balance in the Settlement Account or, where you have a Margin Account, earmark a sum against the available Margin Facilities in the Margin Account, equal to 100% of the value of the Securities (or such other amount as we in our reasonable discretion think necessary) together with stamp duties, levies, commissions and all transaction-related charges and expenses until it has been confirmed by us that the instruction has actually been effected in full or in part or not at all, in which case we may release such sum earmarked or held by us which are in excess of the cost of the Securities purchased; and
 - (b) in the case of sale, where you have a Cash Account, earmark or hold a sum against the credit balance in the Settlement Account or, where you have a Margin Account, earmark a sum against the available Margin Facilities in the Margin Account, of not less than 100% or any percentage of the value of the sale order (as estimated by us in our discretion), or such other amount as we in reasonable discretion think necessary together with stamp duties, levies, commissions and all transaction-related charges and expenses, until (i) the Securities to be sold have been deposited or transferred to us or our nominee or sub-custodian; or (ii) it has been confirmed by us that the instruction cannot be effected.
- 1.10 Whether or not you have complied with Condition 1.8, we may in our discretion carry out your instructions to buy or sell Securities without further notice to you, in which case:
- (a) in the case of purchase, you shall, where you have a Cash Account, place sufficient cleared funds into the Settlement Account as soon as possible after your giving of the relevant instructions, or, where you have a Margin Account, make such payments or deposit of additional Collateral (as defined in Section D (Margin Trading Services)) as we may in our discretion determine and require in accordance with Section D (Margin Trading Services), for the purposes of settlement of the Transaction; and
 - (b) in the case of sale, you shall deposit or arrange for the relevant Securities to be deposited with or transferred to us in time to settle the Transaction.

In any event, you are responsible for all settlement and all other obligations arising in connection with any Transaction entered into pursuant to your instructions.

- 1.11 Unless you notify us otherwise in relation to a Transaction, you confirm that all your sell orders in respect of Securities at or through HKSE will be "long sales". You undertake to notify us at the time of placing a sell order if it relates to Securities which you do not own but have a right to obtain, i.e. involves short selling, and at the same time to provide us with the requisite assurance that the sale is "covered".
- 1.12 We will credit your account with securities, proceeds, refunds, and income only after actual receipt by us and after deducting reasonable expenses. We may credit any one or more of your accounts. Unless it forms part of the services that we have agreed with you in writing, we may (but are not obliged to) take action to collect securities or money due to you. If not collected in person, delivery of securities to you will be at your risks.
- 1.13 References to instructions to buy or sell Securities include, where the context permits, applications to the Fund Manager to redeem, transfer or convert units of Funds held by us for you, and applications for Securities pursuant to Condition 2 (Subscription for Securities in Public Offerings).

2. Subscription for Securities in Public Offerings

- 2.1 We may (but are not obliged to) accept your application for Securities in a new listing or issue or sale (the "New Issue") on the HKSE as your agent. If we accept, you authorize us to make such application on your behalf at any time on or before the closing time for making applications.
- 2.2 If you request us to apply for Securities in a New Issue on your behalf, you shall familiarize yourself with all the terms and conditions governing such New Issue (including terms and conditions relating to application and settlement arrangements), and agree to be bound by and comply with, and authorize us to apply for Securities in the New Issue in accordance with, all such terms and conditions.
- 2.3 You agree to provide such information, make such representations, warranties and undertakings and take such steps as may be required in connection with any such application. By requesting us to apply for Securities in a New Issue on your behalf, you are deemed to have made such representations, warranties and undertakings as may be required in respect of the relevant application, and to have authorized us to make them on your behalf to the issuer or sponsors of the New Issue or other relevant person. You acknowledge and agree that you may be liable in damages to other persons affected by any breach of such representations, warranties and undertakings and without limiting the effect of any other conditions in this Part, you agree to indemnify us against any claim, liability or loss, or reasonable expense which we may suffer, sustain or incur as a result of such breaches provided that such indemnity will not extend to any consequence arising solely from our negligence or wilful misconduct.
- 2.4 You agree that any application for Securities in any New Issue by us at your request will be the only application made by you or on your behalf. You authorize us to represent and warrant to the HKSE and any other relevant person to that effect, and acknowledge that such representation and warranty will be relied upon.
- 2.5 If we or our agent makes a bulk application for our own account, on your behalf and/or on behalf of our other customers, you agree:
- (a) that such bulk application may be rejected for reasons unrelated to your application, and neither we nor our agent will, in the absence of negligence or wilful misconduct, incur any liability arising from such rejection; and

- (b) to fully indemnify us against any claim, liability or loss, or reasonable expense which we may suffer if such bulk application is rejected due to breach of your representations, warranties or undertakings or other factors relating to you. You acknowledge that you may also be liable to other persons affected by such breach or factors.
- 2.6 In the event that the application for Securities is unsuccessful or partially unsuccessful and all or some of the application money is refunded, you authorize us or our nominee or sub-custodian to receive the amount refunded and, unless specifically requested by you and agreed by us, such amount shall be credited into, where you have a Cash Account, the Settlement Account or, where you have a Margin Account, the Margin Account and you authorize us to complete the application so as to require the refunded money to be dealt with in the manner stipulated herein.

3. Settlement

- 3.1 Transactions completed by us as your agent shall be settled 2 trading days after your trade is executed or such other time as determined by us or the relevant Exchange or Clearing House (the "Settlement Date").
- 3.2 Without limiting Conditions 1.8, 1.9 and 1.10, you shall, where you have a Cash Account, make available to us sufficient cleared funds in the Settlement Account, or where you have a Margin Account, ensure that there are sufficient available Margin Facilities in the Margin Account or Securities in the Account for settlement of the transaction on demand or without demand within 24 hours of giving the instructions to us. If you fail to fulfil your settlement obligations by the time specified above, we are authorized to:
- (a) in the case of purchase, transfer or sell any Securities in the Account (including the purchased Securities) as necessary to satisfy your settlement obligations; and
- (b) in the case of sale, purchase on your behalf such Securities as necessary to satisfy your settlement obligations.
- You shall fully indemnify us on demand against any claim, liability or loss, or reasonable expense which we may incur, suffer or sustain in connection with such sale or purchase or any default in performance of your settlement obligations save to the extent of our negligence or wilful misconduct.
- 3.3 In effecting any instruction to sell Securities on your behalf, we are authorized to appropriate, withdraw and/or apply the relevant quantity of appropriate Securities from the pool of Securities you deposited with us so as to enable us to complete the sale.
- 3.4 With respect to Securities purchased on your behalf, we are authorized without prior notice to you to transfer and hold such Securities upon receipt pursuant to Section F (Custody Services).
- 3.5 With respect to Securities sold on your behalf, the net proceeds of sale after deducting all brokerage, commission, stamp duty, transaction and other levies, fees and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the sale shall first be applied towards payment of any indebtedness due and owing to us and the surplus (if any) shall be credited into the Settlement Account or Margin Account.

C. SECURITIES SAVINGS SCHEME

1. Definitions

In this Section, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Instructions" means your instructions to us to purchase Securities at regular monthly intervals in accordance with the conditions of this Section.

"Payment Date" means such day of each month as may be determined by us from time to time upon prior notice to you, on which the aggregate of the purchase prices for all Securities to be purchased under subsisting Instructions shall be debited by us from the Settlement Account, or if such day is not a banking day, the next following banking day.

"Securities" means such Securities as we may from time to time specify.

"Transaction Date" means, in respect of each calendar month, the second banking day after the Payment Date for that calendar month.

2. Scope of Service

- 2.1 You may, from time to time, give Instructions to us. Each Instruction must be given in such form and manner as we may specify from time to time and must state: (a) the type of Securities to be purchased; (b) the sum to be invested by you each month for the purchase of such Securities; and (c) such other information as we may require (whether generally or in any particular case). We may, at our discretion, decide whether or not to accept any Instruction.
- 2.2 If we accept an Instruction, we shall be authorized to purchase the relevant Securities specified by you in such Instruction as your agent in accordance with the conditions of this Section.
- 2.3 On each Transaction Date, we shall, at our discretion, determine the number of units of the Securities selected by you in each subsisting Instruction which could be purchased on that Transaction Date at the prevailing market price on the relevant Exchange with an amount not exceeding your monthly contribution relating to such Securities as stated in that Instruction. We shall use our reasonable endeavour to purchase for your account such number of units of the Securities, having regard to the board lot size or other prescribed denomination for trading of such Securities on the relevant Exchange, provided that we shall in no event be obliged to purchase Securities in odd lots or otherwise in amounts other than the relevant trading denomination. We shall have reasonable discretion to determine the time to place the order for the Securities, the manner of bidding for the Securities and the bid price to be submitted for the Securities.
- 2.4 You acknowledge that prices of Securities may fluctuate substantially on and within each trading day, and there is no assurance that we shall be in a position to obtain the best price for the relevant Securities on any Transaction Date. You acknowledge that the amount of Securities actually purchased by us for your account each month shall depend on, among other things, the prevailing price of the Securities at the time the order is successfully executed and is not within our control. There can be no assurance that there will be liquidity on the relevant Exchange for the Securities selected by you. By reason of the rapid changes in the prices of Securities, lack of sellers for certain Securities or overwhelming demand for certain Securities on the relevant Exchange that frequently take place, or other reasons beyond our reasonable control, there may, on occasions and despite our reasonable endeavours, be failure on the part of us to purchase any of the Securities selected by you. You acknowledge that we will place an order for the purchase of the relevant Securities for your account on the Transaction Date only and at the bid price reasonably determined by us to be appropriate taking into account the market conditions on that date and/or at the time of order execution, and that such order will lapse to the extent it is unfulfilled at the end of the official trading day of the relevant Exchange on that date. You acknowledge and agree that we shall have no liability for any losses or damages that you may suffer or incur by reason of our failure to acquire any Securities for your account save to the extent of our negligence or wilful misconduct.
- 2.5 Your instructions may be aggregated together with instructions for our or our other customers' accounts. We may allocate any Securities acquired amongst you, the other customers and us on such basis as we reasonably deem equitable.
- 2.6 In the event that trading on the relevant Exchange in any of the Securities selected by you in an subsisting Instruction is suspended on the Transaction Date of any month, the following conditions shall apply:
- (a) if the suspension occurs before we have effected the purchase, we shall effect the purchase of Securities for your account as soon as practicable after the Securities resume trading on the relevant Exchange; and
- (b) if the suspension occurs after we have effected the purchase, you shall be bound by the executed Instruction.
- 2.7 We shall not be obliged to give any advice to you as to the selection of Securities to be purchased by you.

3. Settlement Account

- 3.1 For the purpose of this Section, you may by notice in writing to us in such form and manner as we may specify from time to time specifying the number of a new Settlement Account (which must be a bank account maintained by you with us) change the bank account which is to be the Settlement Account. Such notice shall take effect only upon confirmation by us in writing.
- 3.2 You must maintain the Account for the purposes of this Section. We will not purchase any Securities on your behalf if the Account is terminated for any reasons.
- 3.3 The term "Settlement Account" in this Section means:
- (a) with respect to Instructions for purchase of Securities that are traded and settled in Hong Kong dollars, the Hong Kong Dollar Settlement Account only. You must not designate a Settlement Account which is denominated in a foreign currency and we shall not be obliged to take into account any credit balance in any foreign currency account maintained with us when effecting Instructions; and
- (b) with respect to Instructions for purchase of Securities that are traded and settled in currency other than Hong Kong dollars, the Foreign Currency Settlement Account only. You must not designate a Settlement Account which is denominated in Hong Kong dollar and we shall not be obliged to take into account any credit balance in any Hong Kong dollar account maintained with us when effecting Instructions.

4. Payment

- 4.1 You agree to make a monthly contribution to your Settlement Account of the total amount specified in all of your subsisting Instructions and otherwise ensure that the Settlement Account shall have sufficient cleared funds to pay for your aggregate monthly contributions for each month on the relevant Payment Date.
- 4.2 You authorize us to debit the Settlement Account for all of your monthly contributions for the purchase of Securities under this Section on each Payment Date. We shall not be obliged to purchase any Securities for any month in which the Settlement Account does not have sufficient cleared funds to pay for your aggregate monthly contributions for that month.
- 4.3 You shall pay all claims, liabilities and losses, and all reasonable expenses in connection with these Conditions, including the purchase price of Securities and all reasonable expenses, trading fees, commissions, stamp duty, tax and levy incurred in the purchase of Securities for your account, and we are authorized to apply your monthly contributions towards the foregoing payments. Any of your monthly contribution received by us which is not applied towards such payments shall be refunded, without interest, to the Settlement Account.
- 4.4 We may terminate any or all of your subsisting Instructions, in whole or in part, without prior notice to you if the Settlement Account does not have sufficient cleared funds for payment of your aggregate monthly contributions for 3 consecutive months.
- 5. Instructions
All instructions from you to us in connection with this Section shall be given by you in such manner and by such time as may be approved by us from time to time. Instructions to terminate or vary any subsisting Instruction must be received by us at least 5 banking days prior to the next Payment Date. Otherwise, Instructions may be executed and all conditions hereof shall apply to such Instructions, without any liability on our part.
- 6. Custody of Securities
Securities purchased for your account shall be registered and held in safe custody in accordance with Section F (Custody Services).

- 2. Credit Facilities
- 2.1 We may, in our discretion, grant to you Margin Facilities in an amount not exceeding a prescribed percentage (as determined by us from time to time in our discretion) of the market value of the Collateral maintained with us, as determined by us from time to time in our discretion. Margin Facilities shall be subject to these Conditions. We shall be entitled to revise in any way the amount, terms and conditions of the Margin Facilities from time to time in our discretion.
- 2.2 You authorize us to draw on the Margin Facilities to settle any amounts due and owing to us in respect of any Transactions executed on your behalf or in connection with any Services provided by us.
- 2.3 You agree to pay immediately in full and on demand any amount owing to us under the Margin Facilities.
- 2.4 Without prejudice to Condition 2.3, you shall on demand immediately make such payment or deposit with or transfer to us or our nominee or sub-custodian such additional cash and/or Securities approved by us in such amount as we may in our discretion determine so as to provide adequate security in respect of the Margin Facilities. Any failure by you to comply with this Condition will constitute an Event of Default.
- 2.5 Margin Facilities are only available at our discretion and may be varied in any way, withdrawn or cancelled by us at any time without notice or liability.
- 2.6 You agree to pay interest to us in respect of any debit balance on the Margin Account and any amount otherwise owing to us at such rate as may be determined from time to time by us. Such interest shall accrue from day to day (before and after judgment) and shall be payable on the last day of each calendar month or on demand.
- 2.7 Subject to restrictions imposed by us from time to time in our discretion, you may transfer funds from the Settlement Account to the Margin Account or vice versa.
- 3. Collateral
- 3.1 In consideration of our granting Margin Facilities to you or continuing to grant Margin Facilities to you from time to time, you, as beneficial owner, charge to us by way of first fixed charge all Securities and other assets including credit balances in your accounts with us which are now or which shall at any time hereafter be deposited with us or our nominee or sub-custodian by you, or shall come into our or our nominee or sub-custodian's possession, custody or control for any purpose, including additional or substituted Securities, as continuing security for the payment and satisfaction of all monies and liabilities of any nature absolute or contingent which are now or at any time hereafter owing or outstanding, or may become owing or outstanding, by you to us together with interest (at a rate to be determined by us in our discretion from the due date until actual payment before and after judgment) and expenses (including legal costs) and the due and punctual performance and observance by you of all obligations contained in these Conditions.
- 3.2 The Collateral includes:
- (a) all your rights, title and interest in and to the Securities which shall at any time hereafter and from time to time be purchased or held by us or our nominee or sub-custodian for or on your account, together with all dividends or interest paid or payable on and all stocks, shares, rights, monies or other property accruing or offered at any time by way of redemption, substitution, bonus, preference, option or otherwise to or in respect of any of the Securities and all allotments, accretions, offers, rights, distributions, benefits and advantages at any time accruing, made, offered or arising in respect of any of the same; and
- (b) all and any funds standing to the credit of the Settlement Account and the Margin Account and all funds held by us for or on your account from time to time.
- 3.3 Nothing in this Part shall be construed as placing on us any liability in respect of any calls, instalments or other payments relating to any Collateral, and you shall indemnify us in respect of all calls, instalments or other payments relating to the Collateral.
- 3.4 The Charge shall be a continuing security and shall cover and secure the ultimate balance from time to time owing by you to us, notwithstanding the insolvency or liquidation or any incapacity or change in your constitution or status or any intermediate settlement of account or any matter. The Charge is in addition to, and independent of, any guarantee, security, right or remedy now or hereafter held by or available to us.
- 3.5 You represent and warrant to us that during the continuance of the Charge, you have and will maintain unencumbered and absolute title to the Collateral (subject only to the Charge).
- 3.6 You undertake to us that during the continuance of the Charge, you shall:
- (a) deposit with us or to our order, all certificates, instruments and evidence of title to the Collateral, together, where appropriate, with all forms of transfer as we may from time to time require; and
- (b) at any time and from time to time upon request by us execute and procure your nominee to execute such legal or other mortgages, do all such transfers, powers of attorney, acts and things and give such notices, orders and directions as we may require in respect of the Collateral for the purposes of perfecting the Charge.
- 3.7 You will do or permit to be done everything which we may from time to time require to be done for the purpose of enforcing our rights and will allow your name to be used as and when required by us for that purpose.
- 3.8 You authorize us (with full power of substitution) and in your name or otherwise on your behalf and as your act to sign, deliver, perfect and do all instruments, acts and things which may be required or which we believe in good faith to be proper or expedient for carrying out any of your obligations or for exercising any of our powers or for giving to us the full benefit of this security. You ratify and confirm and agree to ratify and confirm any instrument, act or thing which we or our substitute may do.
- 3.9 Throughout the continuance of the Charge, we shall be entitled to refuse any withdrawal of the Collateral.
- 3.10 We or our nominee or sub-custodian may exercise at our discretion (in your name or otherwise at any time whether before or after any demand for payment hereunder and without any further consent or authority on your part) in respect of the Collateral, any voting rights, all rights and powers given to trustees under Sections 11(4) and (5) of the Trustee Ordinance in respect of securities or property subject to a trust, and all rights and powers as if we were the sole beneficial owner thereof.
- 3.11 We shall not be under duty to present any interest coupon or any bond or stock which may be called or drawn for repayment or redemption, or to pay any call or instalment which may become payable on or to accept any offer relating to the Collateral, or to notify you of any of such matters or of any communications received by us in respect of the Collateral.

- 3.12 All expenses (including legal costs) reasonably incurred under this Part by us or in connection with the Charge or the Collateral, including all costs in proceedings for enforcement of the Charge or for obtaining payment of the moneys hereby secured shall be recoverable from you as a debt, and may be debited to any of your accounts with us, and shall be charged on the Collateral.

4. Disposal of Collateral

- 4.1 You authorize us to sell or dispose of any or all of the Collateral, on such terms as we may determine in good faith, in settlement of any liability owed by or on your behalf to us or our nominee or sub-custodian.
- 4.2 In the event of any disposal of Collateral pursuant to Condition 4.1:
- we shall not be responsible for any loss arising out of any such sale and whether or not a better price might have been obtained if we have used reasonable endeavours to sell or dispose of the Securities or any part thereof at the then available market price;
 - you shall pay to us any deficiency if the net proceeds of sale shall be insufficient to cover all the outstanding balances owing by you to us.
- 4.3 We are authorized to give a good discharge of any moneys received by us pursuant to the disposal of the Collateral and a purchaser shall not be bound to enquire whether the Charge has become enforceable nor be concerned with the manner of application of the proceeds of the disposal.

E. NEW ISSUE FINANCING

1. We may, in our discretion, grant to you a loan ("Loan"), subject to these Conditions and in an amount determined by us in our discretion, to be used exclusively to finance your subscription of Securities in accordance with Condition 2 (Subscription for Securities in Public Offerings) of Section B (Securities Trading Services). You acknowledge and agree that we shall have an equitable interest in the proceeds of the Loan until they are actually utilized for such specific purpose. We shall be entitled to revise in any way the terms and conditions of the Loan from time to time in our discretion without notice or liability.

6. In consideration of our granting the Loan to you, you, as beneficial owner, charge to us by way of first fixed charge the Collateral (as defined in Section D (Margin Trading Services) and including all Securities allotted to you pursuant to your subscription of Securities in accordance with Condition 2 (Subscription for Securities in Public Offerings) of Section B (Securities Trading Services)). Conditions 3 (Collateral) and 4 (Disposal of Collateral) of Section D (Margin Trading Services) shall apply to this Section, as if references to "Margin Facilities" are to the Loan, references to the "Collateral" are to the Collateral as defined in this Section, and references to the "Charge" are to the charge over the Collateral under this Section.

We may (but are not obliged to) collect on your behalf dividends, interest and other payments of income or capital in respect of the Securities deposited with us and take such action at your costs and expenses which we or our nominee or sub-custodian deems appropriate for the purposes of such collection. - (d) All shares allotted pursuant to rights taken up on your behalf under Condition 7(c) form part of the Securities held for you.

We or our nominee or sub-custodian shall be under no duty to investigate or participate therein or take any action in connection therewith.
11. You may withdraw Securities at any time by giving at least 3 banking days' prior written notice (or such other notice as we may require) to us duly signed by the Authorized Representatives provided that:
- (a) where any Securities are in the course of being processed for transfer to and registration in the name of our nominee or sub-custodian or a depository, you shall have no right to withdraw such Securities until the same have been received by our nominee or sub-custodian after due registration or the same have become available for withdrawal from the depository; and
 - (b) where you are indebted to us, you may not effect any such withdrawal unless we agree; and
 - (c) we shall have no responsibility to return to you Securities bearing serial numbers identical with those delivered to us so long as the Securities returned are of the same class, denomination and nominal amount and rank pari passu with those originally accepted by us, subject always to any capital reorganization or other actions which have occurred in the meantime; and
 - (d) withdrawal of Securities of any class shall be in multiples of the lowest denomination (whether in board lots or otherwise) of Securities of that class and shall be effected at our branch where your Account is opened; and
 - (e) in respect of withdrawal of Securities held with a depository, upon your request and if available:
 - (i) the Securities may be withdrawn in registered form and, subject to availability of the type and quantity of certificates requested, you may elect to withdraw either new certificates or old certificates and the withdrawal of such certificates shall be in board lots or such other denominations as may be specified by the depository; or
 - (ii) the Securities may be withdrawn by transferring the Securities to an account of a participant in the depository, in which case you are deemed to have withdrawn the Securities upon execution by us of an instruction for the Securities to be transferred and we shall not be under any duty to ensure that the Securities have been received by the participant named by you or to confirm with such participant that the same is to hold the Securities to your order.
- Other than provided in Condition 11(e)(ii), the delivery by us of the Securities to an Authorized Representative or another designated person named in a delivery order believed by us in good faith to have been issued by you, or where no designated person is named in the delivery order, the bearer of the delivery order shall absolutely discharge us from all liabilities therefor Provided That we reserve the right to request you to be personally present for withdrawal.
12. You shall pay our fees, commissions and charges, and all out-of-pocket expenses including the expenses of our sub-custodians and nominees, in each case in the amounts and within the times notified to you, as well as applicable fees of the relevant Exchange, Clearing House and registrar, levies of any regulatory authority, and all applicable stamp duties, taxes and expenses. We may deduct such fees, commissions, charges, expenses, levies, duties, taxes and expenses from your account with us. If any Securities require special or unusual safe custody, you shall pay all expenses reasonably incurred by us in providing such safe custody.
13. You agree that Securities deposited with us shall be at your sole risk save in respect of loss or damage suffered by you by reason of the negligence or wilful misconduct in the performance of our duties hereunder but in any event our liability shall be limited to the extent stated in Condition 10 (Limit of our liability) of Section A, Part I (General Conditions). We will not be responsible in any manner to you for any act or omission of any nominee or custodian selected by us using our reasonable care.
14. We or our nominee or sub-custodian shall not be liable in respect of any loss or damage suffered by you including any deduction (by way of taxation or otherwise) from any funds or payments received whether or not due to or arising out of the handling or dealing by us or our nominee or sub-custodian with Securities or Transactions unless the loss or damage is a direct and immediate consequence of our negligence or wilful misconduct.
15. Your Securities will be treated as fungible and held as part of a larger holding of identical Securities held for our customers. You will be entitled to the same share of the payments and rights arising on the holding as your share of the total holding. Any loss will be apportioned among all owners.
16. You understand that your Securities will be held by us uninsured unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing with us.
17. You may only withdraw or sell your Securities after you have complied with the conditions and made the payments we require (acting reasonably). You may not do so if we have not actually received the relevant Securities or if registration or transfer has not been completed. You will collect any certificates or documents from the place we reasonably specify. Securities may not be withdrawn in a physical form, e.g., if they are in the form of a global certificate or in book-entry form.
18. You authorize us and any person appointed by us to execute any documents and otherwise act on your behalf for all purposes connected with our custodial services.
19. Payments to be made or received in a currency other than Hong Kong dollars may be converted by us into the applicable currency at the rates and times selected by us.

Subject to our rights and completion of transfer of any Securities to us or to you, your Securities and any relevant documents of title in our possession shall be collected by you from us within 7 days of the termination of the custodial service. Any delivery to you by us (acting reasonably) shall be at your sole risk and expense. PART III: WEALTH MANAGEMENT SERVICES

- A. General
- B. Share Option Transactions
- C. FX Trading and Currency Option Transactions
- D. Investment Fund Trading Services
- E. Investment Fund Savings Plan
- F. Third Party Products

A. GENERAL

You may enter into one or more transactions with us (each a “Transaction”), each evidenced by a confirmation (“Confirmation”) and expressed to be subject to these Conditions. The parties will be legally bound by each Transaction as soon as they have made an agreement (orally or otherwise). We will issue a Confirmation to evidence the terms of each Transaction. The terms of each Transaction will be as set out in the relevant Confirmation. Any other information provided by any means by us or others is for reference only.

Terms bear the meaning used in the relevant Confirmation and these Conditions. Currency, interest and other rates, day count fraction, prices, sources and any terms used without definition in a Confirmation or these Conditions have the meaning determined by us by reference to market practice or any source we deem appropriate. We may adjust any date that would otherwise fall on a non-Business Day by reference to market practice. We may round down or up percentages and amounts by reference to market practice.

If any provisions of these Conditions are not appropriate to a Transaction, or if any event is not dealt with in the Confirmation or these Conditions, we may make any adjustments to the prices, rates and any other variable relevant to the Transaction to preserve the economic terms of the Transaction.

If any Transaction relates to derivative products, including options, we will provide to you upon request (a) product specifications and any prospectus or other offering document covering such products and (b) where applicable, a full explanation of margin procedures and the circumstances under which positions may be closed without your consent.

Please read these Conditions, particularly Conditions 3 (Default Interest), 6 (Events of Default) and 7 (Early Termination), and our Risk Disclosure Statements carefully.

1. Single Agreement

All Transactions constitute a single agreement between the parties (“Agreement” which expression includes each Transaction) and will be entered into in reliance on such fact. The parties would not otherwise enter into any Transaction.

2. Payment/Delivery

2.1 Condition Precedent The parties will make payments and deliveries in accordance with each Confirmation, subject to the condition precedent that no Event of Default (see Condition 6) or Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. “Potential Event of Default” means any event which, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an Event of Default.

2.2 Manner Payments will be made in freely transferable and cleared funds and in the manner customary for payments in the relevant currency. Deliveries will be made in the manner customary for the relevant securities or property or as reasonably determined by us.

2.3 Gross-Up All payments by you will be made without deduction or withholding on account of any Tax unless required by law. If you are required by law to deduct or withhold, you will:

- (a) promptly notify us;
- (b) promptly pay to the relevant authority the full amount required to be deducted or withheld and send us an official receipt; and
- (c) unless such Tax would not be imposed but for a connection between the jurisdiction of the taxation authority and us, pay to us, in addition to the payment to which we are otherwise entitled, an additional amount to ensure that the net amount actually received by us (free of Taxes) equals the full amount we would have received had no deduction or withholding been required.

“Tax” includes any present or future tax, levy, duty or assessment of any nature (including interest and penalties) imposed by any taxing authority other than a stamp, registration, documentation or similar tax.

2.4 Netting If on any date amounts would be payable in the same currency under 2 or more Transactions by each party, then on such date, each party’s obligation to pay such amounts will be discharged and be replaced by an obligation on the party by whom the larger aggregate amount would otherwise have been payable to pay to the other party the excess of such amount over the smaller aggregate amount.

2.5 Payment Currency Your payments will be made in the currency of the liability. A sum received by us in another currency only constitutes a discharge to the extent of the net amount of the currency of your liability which we would be able to purchase with the amount received as soon as it is practicable to do so. You will, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding any judgment, indemnify us against any reasonable loss and expense. It will be sufficient for us to show that we would have suffered a loss had an actual exchange or purchase been made.

3. Default Interest

3.1 If you fail to pay any amount when due, you will pay to us interest on the overdue amount, from (and including) the due date to (but excluding) the date of actual payment (before and after judgment), at our interest rate for unarranged overdraft, compounded monthly and calculated by reference to the actual number of days elapsed.

3.2 If you fail to make any delivery when required, you will indemnify us against any loss (including all reasonable costs in respect of insurance, vaulting, transportation etc. and borrowing costs) as reasonably determined by us, and pay to us interest on an amount equal to the fair market value (as reasonably determined by us) of that which was required to be delivered from (and including) the original scheduled delivery date to (but excluding) the date of actual delivery.

4. Representations

You represent to us on the date on which each Transaction is entered into that:

4.1 Status If you are a corporate body, you are duly organised and validly existing under the law of the jurisdiction of your organisation and in good standing.

4.2 Powers You have the power to enter into and perform the Agreement and have taken all necessary action to authorize entry and performance.

4.3 No Violation Such entry and performance do not violate or conflict with your constitutional documents (if applicable), or any law, order or requirement of any court or government agency, or any contractual obligation affecting you or any of your assets.

4.4 Authorizations All government and other authorizations, notices or filings required to be obtained by you with respect to the Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all related conditions have been complied with.

4.5 Binding Your obligations under the Agreement constitute your legal, valid and binding obligations enforceable in accordance with its terms.

4.6 No Event of Default No Event of Default or Potential Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

4.7 No Litigation You are not aware of any pending or threatened action before any court, tribunal, government agency or arbitrator that would affect the legality, validity or enforceability of the Agreement or your ability to perform your obligations under the Agreement.

4.8 No reliance You are not relying on any advice, recommendation, assurance or guarantee (whether written or oral) from us regarding that Transaction or any expected results, but have made your own independent decision to enter into that Transaction and as to whether that Transaction is appropriate or proper for you based upon your own judgment or upon advice from such third party advisors as you have deemed necessary.

4.9 Principal You are entering into that Transaction as principal and not as agent for any other person.

5. Obligations

You agree that so long as you have any obligation under the Agreement:

5.1 Information You will deliver to us any information relating to your financial conditions or business as we may reasonably request, provided that, if you are a listed company, such disclosure is consistent with applicable listing rules.

5.2 Authorizations You will obtain and maintain in full force and effect all authorizations, notices or filings of any government or other authority that may be required to be obtained by you with respect to the Agreement.

5.3 Laws You will comply in all material respects with applicable laws.

5.4 Stamp Tax You will pay any stamp, registration, documentation or similar tax imposed on any Transaction and will indemnify us against any failure to do so.

6. Events of Default

The occurrence at any time of any of the following events with respect to you or any person who has provided any guarantee or security in support of your obligations under the Agreement (each a “relevant party”) constitutes an event of default (“Event of Default”):

- (a) Fail to pay or deliver Failure to make, when due, any payment or delivery required under the Agreement. Disclaiming, repudiating or rejecting, in whole or in part, the Agreement.

 - (ii) such guarantee or security expires or ceases to be in full force and effect without our written consent; or
 - (iii) any relevant party (or any person appointed to manage it or act on its behalf) disclaims or repudiates, in whole or part, or challenges the validity of, such guarantee or security.
- (d) Misrepresentation Any representation proves to be incorrect or misleading in any material respect.
- (e) Cross default The occurrence or existence of:

 - (ii) a default in making one or more payments or deliveries on the due date under any financial, securities, derivative or borrowing transaction (after giving effect to applicable notice requirement or grace period); or
 - (iii) a disclaimer, repudiation or rejection, in whole or in part, of any financial, securities, derivative or borrowing transaction (or such action is taken by any person appointed or empowered to manage any relevant party or act on its behalf).
- (f) Insolvency Any relevant party:
 - (i) becomes insolvent or fails or admits in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;
 - (ii) makes a general assignment, arrangement or composition with or for the benefit of its creditors;
 - (iii) or any other person commences any judicial, administrative or other proceeding, or takes any action, (1) seeking a judgment of or arrangement for insolvency, bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization or rehabilitation with respect to the relevant party or its debts or assets, (2) seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, supervisor or custodian for the relevant party or any part of its assets, or (3) which has a similar effect;
 - (iv) has a resolution passed for its liquidation, reorganization or rehabilitation;
 - (v) has a secured party take possession of all or any part of its assets or has a distress, execution, attachment or other legal process enforced against all or any part of its assets; or
 - (vi) causes or is subject to any event which, under any applicable law, has a similar effect to any of the above.
- (g) Merger Any relevant party amalgamates or merges with or transfers all or any substantial part of its assets to, or reconstitutes as, another entity.
- (h) Death If any relevant party is an individual, such relevant party dies or becomes mentally incapacitated.

Any relevant party effects any substantial change in its capital structure.
- (j) Force majeure
 - (i) Any relevant party, by reason of any event or circumstance, is or would be prevented from complying with, or it is or would be impossible or impracticable to comply with, any material provision of the Agreement where such event or circumstance is beyond the control of the affected party; or
 - (ii) It is or would be unlawful under any applicable law for any relevant party to comply with any material provision of the Agreement.

For this purpose, material provisions include the obligation to make or receive a payment or delivery on a timely basis under a Transaction.

- (k) Adequate assurances Any relevant party fails to provide adequate assurances of its ability to perform its outstanding obligations under the Agreement or any other agreement between the parties on or before the second Business Day after our written request if we have reasonable grounds for insecurity.

7. Early Termination

7.1 If at any time an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, we may, by not more than 14 days’ notice to you identifying the Event of Default, designate a day as an Early Termination Date in respect of the affected or all outstanding Transactions (which will terminate on the designated date).

7.2 We will determine in good faith our losses or gains, and costs, that are or would be incurred or realized under then prevailing circumstances in replacing or providing the economic equivalent of the material terms of each terminated Transaction including the remaining payments, deliveries and rights. We will determine such amounts as of a commercially reasonable date, using commercially reasonable procedures and to produce a commercially reasonable result. We may apply different valuation methods to different Transactions depending on type, complexity or other relevant factors. We may take into account any relevant information including market data and information from internal sources, and without duplication:

- (a) cost of funding;
- (b) any reasonable loss, cost or gain incurred in connection with our terminating or obtaining any hedge related to a terminated Transaction.

All amounts will be expressed in the currency reasonably chosen by us. We will convert amounts in another currency at our spot exchange rate.

We will net off (i) amounts that became payable to either party in respect of all terminated Transactions on or prior to the Early Termination Date and which remain unpaid as at such date and (ii) an amount equal to the fair market value as of the original scheduled date for delivery (as reasonably determined by us) of anything which was required to be delivered to either party in respect of each terminated Transaction on or prior to the Early Termination Date and which has not been so delivered as at such date, together with interest from (and including) the original due date to (but excluding) the Early Termination Date, at the rate for overdue interest.

7.3 As soon as reasonably practicable after an Early Termination Date, we will provide to you a statement showing, in reasonable detail, the calculations and any amount payable following our calculation under Condition 7.2. Such amount will be payable on the day specified in the notice (being at least 7 days after the date of the notice), together with interest thereon (before and after judgment) from (and including) the Early Termination Date to (but excluding) the date such amount is paid, at the rate for overdue amounts.

7.4 The parties agree that an amount recoverable under Condition 7.2 is a reasonable pre-estimate of loss and not a penalty. Such amount is payable for loss of bargain and loss of protection against future risks. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement, neither party will be entitled to recover any additional damages for such losses.

B. SHARE OPTION TRANSACTIONS

I. General Provisions

Some common definitions:

All Exchanges means all exchanges or quotation systems where trading has a material effect (as determined by us) on the overall market for futures or options contracts relating to the Share.

Call Option entitles Seller to receive a Premium. If Closing Price exceeds Strike Price, Seller has the obligation to sell Shares at Strike Price per Share if Buyer has exercised the option.

Exchange includes its successor or any substitute selected by us to which trading in the Shares has temporarily relocated.

Expiration Date means the date specified in the Confirmation (or, if it is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the next Scheduled Trading Day). If such date is a Disrupted Day by reason of an event resulting in a Disrupted Day prior to the Latest Exercise Time on such date, the Expiration Date will be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day which is not a Disrupted Day, unless each of the 8 Scheduled Trading Days following the original date is a Disrupted Day. In that case, that 8th Scheduled Trading Day will be the Expiration Date. However, if an option is exercised on a Scheduled Trading Day which would have been an Expiration Date (if it is not a Disrupted Day), that Scheduled Trading Day will be considered the Expiration Date for the purpose of determining whether the option is exercised with the Exercise Period.

Exercise Period Unless otherwise specified, means the Expiration Date between 9:00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) and the Expiration Time.

Latest Exercise Time, if not specified in the Confirmation, means the Expiration Time.

Number of Shares means, in respect of a share option transaction, the number of Shares obtained by multiplying the Number of Options by the Option Entitlement.

Number of Shares to be Delivered, in respect of a share option transaction, means a number of Shares equal to the number of options exercised or deemed exercised multiplied by the Option Entitlement, rounded down to the nearest whole Share.

Option Entitlement means the number of Shares per option specified in the Confirmation, or, in the absence of specification, 1 Share per option.

Premium means the amount payable by Buyer to Seller on the Premium Payment Date.

Premium Payment Date, if not specified in the Confirmation, means the date that is 1 Settlement Cycle following the Transaction Date.

Put Option entitles Seller to receive a Premium. If Strike Price exceeds Closing Price, Seller has the obligation to purchase Shares at Strike Price per Share if Buyer has exercised the option.

Scheduled Trading Day means any day on which each Exchange and Related Exchange are scheduled to be open for trading for their respective regular trading sessions.

Settlement Cycle means in respect of a Share, the period of Clearance System Business Days following a trade in the Shares on the Exchange in which settlement will customarily occur according to the rules of the Exchange.

Strike Price means the price per Share specified or determined according to the Confirmation.

Shares means the stocks specified in the Confirmation.

Transaction Date means the date specified as such in the Confirmation.

Capitalized terms, not otherwise defined, bear the meaning ascribed in the relevant Confirmation.

II. Automatic exercise of an Option

Each option not already exercised will, unless Buyer notifies Seller otherwise before such time, be deemed to be automatically exercised at the Expiration Time on the Expiration Date:

- (a) if cash settlement applies;
- (b) if physical settlement applies, if the option is In-the-Money as determined by us.

Closing Price means the price per Share determined as provided in the Confirmation as of the Expiration Time on the Expiration Date.

In-the-Money means:

- (a) in respect of a call, that (i) the Closing Price is equal to or greater than the price for a Share at which any Related Exchange would automatically exercise a physically-settled option with the Strike Price relating to such Share, or (ii) if no options relating to such Share are listed on any Related Exchange or no Related Exchange is specified in the Confirmation, the Closing Price is greater than the Strike Price; and
- (b) in respect of a put, that (i) the Closing Price is equal to or less than the price for a Share at which any Related Exchange would automatically exercise a physically-settled option with the Strike Price relating to such Share, or (ii) if no options relating to such Share are listed on any Related Exchange or no Related Exchange is specified in the Confirmation, the Closing Price is less than the Strike Price.

III. Valuation

1. Some definitions:

Expiration Time, if none is specified in the Confirmation, means the scheduled weekday closing time of the Exchange or Related Exchange on the relevant Expiration Date, disregarding after hours or other trading outside the regular trading session hours. If the relevant Exchange closes before the specified Expiration Time, the Expiration Time will be the actual closing time.

Expiration Date, in respect of an option, means each Scheduled Trading Day within the Exercise Period on which the option is or is deemed to be exercised.

Disrupted Day means any Scheduled Trading Day on which a relevant Exchange or Related Exchange fails to open for trading during its regular trading session or on which a Market Disruption Event has occurred.

Market Disruption Event means the occurrence or existence (a) a Exchange Disruption or Trading Disruption, which we determine is material, at any time during 1 hour ending at the relevant Expiration Time or Latest Exercise Time, or (b) an Early Closure.

Exchange Disruption means any event (other than an Early Closure) that disrupts or impairs (as determined by us) the ability of market participants in general to effect transactions in, or obtain market values for (a) the Shares on the Exchange, or (b) futures or options contracts relating to the Share on any relevant Related Exchange.

Trading Disruption means any suspension of or limitation imposed on trading by the relevant Exchange or Related Exchange or otherwise and whether by reason of movements in price exceeding limits permitted by the relevant Exchange or Related Exchange or otherwise (a) relating to the Share on the Exchange; or (b) in futures or options contracts relating to the Share on any relevant Related Exchange.

Early Closure means the closure on any Exchange Business Day of the relevant Exchange or any Related Exchange(s) prior to its scheduled weekday closing time (disregarding after hours or other trading outside the regular trading session hours) unless such earlier closing time is announced by such Exchange(s) or Related Exchange(s) at least 1 hour prior to the earlier of (a) the actual closing time for the regular trading session on such Exchange(s) or Related Exchange(s) on such Exchange Business Day and (b) the submission deadline for orders to be entered into the Exchange or Related Exchange system for execution at the Expiration Time on such Exchange Business Day.

2. Consequences of Disrupted Day: If an Expiration Date, would otherwise be a Disrupted Day, it will instead be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day which is not a Disrupted Day, unless each of the 8 Scheduled Trading Days following the original date is a Disrupted Day. In that case, that 8th Scheduled Trading Day will be the Expiration Date. We will determine our good faith estimate of the value for the Share which is affected by the occurrence of the Disrupted Days, as of the Expiration Time on that 8th Scheduled Trading Day.

IV. Settlement

1. Physical Settlement

In the case of an Option Transaction where Physical Settlement applies:

- (a) in the case of a call, Buyer will pay to Seller the Strike Price multiplied by the Number of Shares to be Delivered, and Seller will deliver to Buyer the Number of Shares to be Delivered, and will pay any Fractional Share Amount;
- (b) in the case of a put, Buyer will deliver to Seller the Number of Shares to be Delivered, and will pay any Fractional Share Amount, and Seller will pay to Buyer the Strike Price multiplied by the Number of Shares to be Delivered.

Payment and delivery will be made on the Settlement Date to the account specified in the Confirmation through the clearance system(s) customarily used in Hong Kong for settling trades in the relevant Share. If the relevant Clearance System permits settlement to occur on a delivery versus payment basis, settlement will occur on that basis.

After delivery of the Shares to you and until you are entered in the register of members of the relevant company as the registered holder of the Shares, we are not obliged to deliver to you any certificate, notice, circular or any other document received by us or our nominee as registered holder of the Shares, or to exercise any rights attaching to the Shares, or be under any liability in respect of any loss or damage suffered by you as a direct or indirect result of our or our nominee being registered as such holder. We are not obliged to register or procure the registration of yourself or any other person as the registered holder of the Shares in the register of members of the relevant company.

2. Settlement

Fractional Share Amount means an amount in the Settlement Currency representing the fractional Share resulting from the calculation of the Number of Shares to be Delivered as determined by us multiplied by, in respect of a share option transaction, the Strike Price attributable to the relevant Share on the date the option is exercised or deemed exercised (determined assuming cash settlement were applicable and the date the option is exercised or deemed exercised were the Expiration Date).

Settlement Date: in relation to Shares to be delivered under an option transaction, is the day that falls 1 Settlement Cycle following the Scheduled Trading Date on which the option is exercised, or, if it is not a Clearance System Business Day, the next System Business Day. If a Settlement Disruption Event prevents delivery on that date, the Settlement Date will be the first succeeding day on which delivery of the Shares can take place through the relevant Clearance System, unless a Settlement Disruption Event continues on each of the 8 Clearance System Business Days following the original date. In that case, (i) if the Shares can be delivered in another commercially reasonable manner, the Settlement Date will be the first day on which settlement customarily would take place following a sale on that 8th day, using such other manner of delivery, and

(ii) if the Shares cannot be delivered in any other commercially reasonable manner, the Settlement Date will be postponed until delivery can be effected through the relevant Clearance System or in a commercially reasonable manner.

Clearance System Business Day means a day on which the relevant Clearance System is open for the acceptance and execution of settlement instructions.

Settlement Disruption Event means, in relation to a Share, an event beyond the control of the parties which results in the relevant Clearance System cannot clear the transfer of the Share.

Representation / Agreement The party required to deliver Shares agrees that it will convey, and, on each date that it delivers such Shares, represents that it has conveyed, good title to the Shares it is required to deliver, free from (a) any lien, charge, claim or other encumbrance (other than a lien routinely imposed on all securities by the relevant Clearance System) and any other restrictions whatsoever, including any restrictions under applicable securities laws, without any obligation on the part of the receiver of such Shares in connection with that party's subsequent sale of such Shares to deliver an offering document, or comply with any volume or any manner of sale restrictions, (b) any and all restrictions that any sale, assignment or other transfer of such Shares be consented to or approved by any person or entity, (c) any limitation on the type or status, financial or otherwise, of any purchaser, pledgee, assignee or transferee of such Shares, (d) any requirement of the delivery of any certificate, approval, consent, agreement, opinion of counsel, notice or any other document of any person or entity to the issuer of, any other obligor or any registrar or transfer agent for, such Shares, and (e) any registration or qualification requirements or prospectus delivery requirement for such Shares pursuant to applicable securities laws. A party required to deliver Shares under a Transaction represents that to the extent appropriate for the relevant Clearance System, the Shares are properly in book-entry form.

Failure to Deliver If you fail to perform any obligation to deliver Shares, you will indemnify us on demand for any costs, losses or reasonable expenses (including the costs of borrowing the relevant Shares, if applicable) resulting from such failure. A certificate signed by us setting out such costs, losses or expenses in reasonable detail will be conclusive evidence that they have been incurred.

Expenses You will pay all expenses relating to the transfer of Shares in a physical settlement.

Dividends All dividends on Shares to be delivered under a physically-settled share transaction will be payable to the party that would receive such dividends according to market practice for a sale of such Shares to be settled through the relevant Clearance System on the relevant date the option is exercised or deemed exercised.

V. Adjustments

1. Adjustments to Shares

Following declaration by the issuer of the terms of a Potential Adjustment Event, we will determine whether such event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares and, if so, make any adjustments to any one or more of the terms and any variables relevant to the exercise, settlement or payment of the relevant Transaction as appropriate to account for that diluting or concentrative effect, and determine the effective date of the adjustments.

Potential Adjustment Event means:

- (a) a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of the Shares (unless a Merger Event) or a free distribution or dividend of the Shares to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalization or similar issue;
- (b) a distribution or dividend to existing holders of the Shares of (i) the Shares, (ii) other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or proceeds of liquidation of the issuer, equally or proportionally with such payments to holders of Shares, (iii) share capital or other securities of another issuer acquired or owned (directly or indirectly) by the issuer as a result of a spin-off or other similar transaction, or (iv) any other type of securities, rights, warrants or other assets, in any case for payment (cash or otherwise) at less than the prevailing market price as determined by us;
- (c) an extraordinary dividend (such characterization of the dividend or a part thereof to be determined by us);
- (d) a call by the issuer in respect of the Shares not fully paid;
- (e) a repurchase by the issuer or its subsidiary of the Shares;
- (f) in respect of the issuer, an event that results in any shareholder rights being distributed or becoming separated from shares of common stock or other shares of the capital stock of the issuer pursuant to a shareholder rights plan or arrangements directed against hostile takeovers that provides upon the occurrence of certain events for a distribution of preferred stock, warrants, debt instruments or stock rights at a price below their market value, as determined by us, provided that any adjustment effected as a result of such an event shall be readjusted upon any redemption of such rights; or
- (g) any other event determined by us to have a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the Shares.

Correction of share prices If any price published on the Exchange and which is utilized for any calculation or determination is subsequently corrected and the correction is published by the Exchange within one Settlement Cycle after the original publication, we will determine the amount that is payable or deliverable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust the terms of the relevant Transaction to account for such correction.

VI. Extraordinary Events

1. Extraordinary Event means a Merger Event, Tender Offer, Nationalization, Insolvency or Delisting.

Merger Event means, in respect of any Shares:

- (a) any reclassification or change of the Shares that results in a transfer of or an irrevocable commitment to transfer all Shares outstanding;
- (b) any consolidation, amalgamation or merger of the issuer with or into another entity (unless the issuer is the continuing entity and it does not result in any such reclassification or change of all of the Shares outstanding);
- (c) any takeover offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person to purchase or otherwise obtain 100% of the outstanding Shares of the issuer that results in a transfer of, or an irrevocable commitment to transfer, all such Shares (other than such Shares owned or controlled by such other entity or person); or
- (d) any other consolidation, amalgamation or merger of the issuer or its subsidiaries with or into another entity in which the issuer is the continuing entity and which does not result in a reclassification or change of all such Shares outstanding, but results in the outstanding Shares (other than Shares owned or controlled by such other entity) immediately prior to such event collectively representing less than 50% of the outstanding Shares immediately following such event (a "Reverse Merger"), in each case if the Merger Date is on or before, (i) in the case of a physically settled option transaction, the later to occur of the Expiration Date or, the final Settlement Date, or (ii) in any other case, the final Expiration Date.

Merger Date means the closing date of a Merger Event or, if a closing date cannot be determined under the applicable local law, such other date as determined by us.

Tender Offer means a takeover offer, tender offer, exchange offer, solicitation, proposal or other event by any entity or person that results in such entity or person purchasing, or otherwise obtaining or having the right to obtain, by conversion or other means, greater than 10% and less than 100% of the outstanding voting shares of the issuer, as determined by us, based upon the filings with governmental or self-regulatory agencies or such other information as we deem relevant.

Tender Offer Date means the date on which voting shares in the applicable percentage threshold are actually purchased or obtained (as determined by us).

Nationalization means all Shares, all or substantially all assets of an issuer are nationalized, expropriated or required to be transferred to any governmental entity.

Insolvency means by reason of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of or any similar proceeding affecting an issuer, (a) all Shares of the issuer are required to be transferred to a trustee, liquidator or other similar official or (b) holders of the Shares of the issuer are legally prohibited from transferring them.

Delisting means the Shares cease or will cease to be listed, traded or publicly quoted on the Exchange for any reason other than a Merger Event or Tender Offer, and are not immediately re-listed, re-traded or re-quoted on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country.

2. If there is a Merger Event or Tender Offer, we will make any adjustments to the exercise, settlement, payment or any other terms of the Transaction as we determine to be appropriate to account for the economic effect on that Transaction of the Merger Event or Tender Offer, and determine the effective date of the adjustments. Alternatively, if we determine that no adjustment could be made to produce a commercially reasonable result, notify you that the Transaction will be cancelled as of the Merger Date or the Tender Offer Date and any payment to be made will be determined in accordance with Condition 4 (Payment).

3. If a Nationalization, Insolvency or Delisting occurs, the relevant Transaction will be cancelled as of the Announcement Date and any payment to be made will be determined in accordance with Condition 4 (Payment).

Announcement Date means (a) in the case of a Nationalization, the date of the first public announcement to nationalize (whether or not amended or on the terms originally announced) that leads to the Nationalization, (b) in the case of Insolvency, the date of the first public announcement of the institution of a proceeding or presentation of a petition or passing of a resolution (or other analogous procedure in any jurisdiction) that leads to Insolvency, and (c) in the case of a Delisting, the date of the first public announcement by the Exchange that the Shares will cease to be listed, traded or publicly quoted. In respect of any Extraordinary Event, if the announcement of such Extraordinary Event is made after the actual closing time for the regular trading session on the relevant Exchange, without regard to any after hours or any other trading outside of such regular trading session hours, the Announcement Date shall be deemed to be next following Scheduled Trading Date.

4. Payment

In respect of an option transaction, (a) the amount to be paid by one party ("Payer") to the other will be the amount determined by us which may take into consideration any information which we consider appropriate (including any cost arising from unwinding or re-establishing any hedge position with respect to such Transaction) and (b) the party which shall be the Payer shall be determined by us. A payment to be made this Condition shall be made not later than 3 Business Days following the determination by us of such amount (denominated in the currency for settlement of the Transaction as determined by us) and which party shall pay such amount.

C. FX TRADING AND CURRENCY OPTION TRANSACTIONS

- (d) "Preceding": that date will be the first preceding day that is a Business Day.

Price source / rate / rounding

If a specified price source or currency exchange rate is not available on the date a calculation is required to be made, then any other available price source or successor rate as determined by us may be used.

In the case of a Deliverable Currency Option Transaction, Seller will settle by paying the Call Amount and receiving from Buyer the Put Amount, subject to any condition precedent and these Conditions.

IV. Disruption Events

1. A Disruption Event occurs if (as determined by us):
 - (a) a specified currency exchange rate splits into more than 1 currency exchange rate (Dual Exchange Rate);
 - (b) a default, event of default or other similar event (however described) with respect to any security or indebtedness for borrowed money of, or guaranteed by, a governmental authority including (i) failure of full, timely payment (disregarding any applicable grace periods), (ii) a declared moratorium, standstill, waiver, deferral, repudiation or rescheduling, or (iii) the amendment or modification of the terms and conditions of any such security, indebtedness or guarantee without the consent of all holders of such obligation, in any case, without regard to any lack or alleged lack of authority or capacity of such governmental authority (Governmental Authority Default);
 - (c) it becomes impossible to obtain a firm quote of the Fixing Rate for the Minimum Amount (in one Transaction or a commercially reasonable number of Transactions) on the Expiration Date (or, if different, the day on which rates for the Expiration Date would, in the ordinary course, be published by the relevant price source) or by another other date (Illiquidity Expiration Date) specified for such purpose in the Confirmation (Illiquidity);
 - (d) the Primary Rate (determined according to the Confirmation) differs from the Secondary Rate (determined according to the Confirmation) by at least the Price Materiality Percentage specified in the Confirmation (Price Materiality);
 - (e) it becomes impossible to obtain the Fixing Rate on the Expiration Date (or, if different, the day on which rates for the Expiration Date would, in the ordinary course, be published by the relevant price source) (Price Source Disruption).

2. Consequences

If a Disruption Event occurs on the Expiration Date, Illiquidity Expiration Date or Settlement Date in respect of an FX Transaction or a Currency Option Transaction, we may postpone, determine or adjust the Expiration Date, Settlement Date or Fixing Rate, or apply any source, method or basis to settle the Transaction, taking into consideration all relevant information in good faith, including:

- (a) settle the Transaction in any currency, amount and date as determined by us; and/or

- (b) require you to pay any amount payable by you on the Settlement Date into escrow in an interest-bearing account with us, to be applied towards paying your obligations.

D. INVESTMENT FUND TRADING SERVICES

1. Part II (Securities) applies to "Fund" (as defined therein) in addition to the following provisions. If there is any conflict or inconsistency, the provisions of this Section D will prevail.
2. We will pay the redemption / dividend / coupon to you only after we have received the money from the Fund Manager.
3. We may, at our discretion, accept any instructions given by the use of telephone or the internet.
4. If you do not have a valid settlement account, we may credit any relevant amount to any of your accounts (where applicable, at an exchange rate solely determined by us).
5. Any application for units or shares of a Fund must be submitted to us by the relevant prescribed cut-off time, as set out in the explanatory memorandum of the Fund or otherwise notified to you by us. Any application received by us on a Business Day after the prescribed cut-off time will only be processed by us on the next Business Day on which such applications may be accepted by the Fund.
6. If there is any conflict on a procedural matter between the offer documents of a Fund and our dealing procedures, our dealing procedures shall prevail.
7. You agree that we may disclose to any Fund Manager, at its request, any of your personal information for the purposes of any Transaction.
8. The actual bid and offer prices of any Transaction will be determined at the time when such Transaction is effected (as confirmed by the Fund Manager) and any prices which may be quoted by us or our representatives at any time are for indication only.
9. Instructions for effecting a Transaction in a Fund will not be partially executed.
10. Margin Facilities are not applicable to Transactions in Funds.

E. INVESTMENT FUND SAVINGS PLAN

1. You may, with our agreement, apply to establish a monthly investment fund savings plan by the form ("Application Form") provided by us. You will, with our agreement, select the Fund(s) you wish to buy, and specify the Monthly Contribution Amount you will pay for each Fund. Only those Funds notified by us from time to time are available for your selection.
2. Following our acceptance of your application, you will pay the agreed Total Monthly Contribution Amount to us on the agreed date in each calendar month (or, if it is not a banking day, on the next banking day) ("Contribution Date"). The first payment will be due on the first Contribution Date falling at least 2 banking days after the date of your application.
3. We will use each Monthly Contribution Amount actually received from you (after deducting all relevant fees and expenses) towards buying, on your behalf, the maximum number (rounded downwards to the number of decimal places as prescribed by the relevant Fund Manager from time to time) of units, shares or interests ("units") of the agreed Fund on the 1st banking day after the Contribution Date or as soon as practicable thereafter if your Settlement Account is maintained with us ("Subscription Date"). If we cannot buy units in any of the agreed Funds after 3 consecutive banking days for whatever reason, we will cease to buy units in the relevant Fund(s) on your behalf, notify you and credit any unused Monthly Contribution Amount(s) (without interest) to your Settlement Account.
4. In determining the price payable by you, we may use the weighted average price of purchases of units in the Funds under similar orders of all our customers.
5. If any purchased units are less than the total requirements of similar orders of all our customers, we may allocate them in a fair manner.
6. Units purchased on your behalf will be held in safe custody in accordance with Part II Section F (Custody Services).
7. If the amount actually received from you on the Contribution Date is less than the Total Monthly Contribution Amount, unless otherwise agreed with you before the Subscription Date, we may make no purchase and refund the moneys (without interest) to your Settlement Account.
8. Payments to be made for the purchase of units in a currency other than that of the agreed Funds may be converted by us into the applicable currency at the rates and times selected by us. We may refuse to accept any payment in a currency other than that of the agreed Funds at any time. Payments to be received by us on your behalf in respect of the Funds from time to time in a currency other than that of your Settlement Account may be converted by us into the applicable currency at the rates and times selected by us. We may deduct all fees and expenses for the conversion from each such payment.
9. Your plan (including the Funds available, any minimum or maximum amount for the Monthly Contribution Amount, and any minimum or maximum amount in respect of the value of the units redeemed or switched or the value of the units remaining in the plan after redemption or switching) is subject to change by us, and may be changed by you with our agreement. You may apply to change any details of your plan by the form provided by us. Any agreed change will become effective as from the first Contribution Date falling at least 2 banking days later.
10. You may terminate your plan at any time after notice to us and, if we require, paying us a surcharge. You may apply to terminate your plan by the form provided by us. We may terminate your plan by 7 days' prior notice to you. However, if you fail to pay the Total Monthly Contribution Amount in full on 2 consecutive Contribution Dates, we may terminate your plan without notice and a surcharge may be levied by us.

F. THIRD PARTY PRODUCTS

1. All offer documents, including any information memorandum, financial statements, product booklet, term sheet and prospectus, are issued by the issuer of the relevant product. We expressly disclaim all liabilities in respect of all offer documents. We do not in any way guarantee or give any assurance in respect of the obligations of any issuer.
2. We act only as a distributor of third party products and not as agent for the issuer. We have no authority to accept or refuse applications for such products on behalf of the issuer. Our nominee and we will act as your agent in relation to third party products. You authorize us to take all actions, give all confirmations and representations, and to do all things that we consider necessary or desirable in connection with carrying out your instructions relating to any third party product.
3. You agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the relevant offer documents in addition to these Conditions, and to pay in full for and accept the third party products you applied for or any lesser amount allotted to you if applicable. If full payment is not received from you when due, your Transactions may be closed out and you will be responsible for all losses and expenses. We may aggregate your application with applications made by our other customers and make a single application in the name of our nominee. In the event of the application being partly successful, we may allocate the products among yourself and our other customers.
4. The purchase price and any fees payable by you will be as set out in our confirmation to you. Our nominee and we may accept and retain commissions and fees from the issuer in connection with any product, without liability to account or disclose to you.
5. You confirm that you will have read and understood the contents of the relevant offer documents in your preferred language (including the risk disclosures and terms and conditions, as supplemented or modified from time to time) and agree to give all required confirmations. By giving an instruction to purchase a third party product, you are deemed to have accepted the relevant offer documents. You will conduct your own assessment whether the product is suitable for you in the light of your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives, before giving any instruction to purchase a product. You will determine that you have sufficient income and net worth to be able to assume the risks and bear the potential losses associated with each product you wish to purchase. You understand that no certificate of title will be available for investment products.
6. You warrant that you will purchase each product for your own account and not for any other person, and that you will purchase each product for investment purpose and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, any distribution or disposition thereof. Your interest in a product may not be transferable without the prior written consent of the issuer.
7. You acknowledge that a product may have ownership or trading prohibitions or restrictions (which may or may not be set out in the offer documents). By giving an instruction to purchase a product, you will warrant that you are not subject to any such prohibitions or restrictions, and that your purchase of the product complies with all applicable laws and regulations.
8. You understand that some of the products are not intended for offer or sale to the public. Any offer or information relating to such products is communicated to you on a strictly private and confidential basis for your personal use only. You will not pass on any such information to any third parties.
9. You will not rely on us, the issuer or our or its affiliates in assessing the merits, risks or suitability of purchasing any product. You understand that information and explanations in the offer documents should not be considered as investment advice or a recommendation to purchase the product.
10. You acknowledge that you may not have any direct contractual relationship with the issuer. In this case, in the event of default by the issuer or any guarantor, any legal action against them may only be taken by us, at your written request and after you have provided us with full indemnity and security satisfactory to us in respect of all costs and expenses that might be incurred (in the amount estimated by us in good faith).

11. We need not commence or continue with any action if we consider that it is not appropriate. We will have absolute control over any legal action (including to settle or discontinue it). If we act in good faith and on legal advice, we will not in any circumstances incur any liability to you if we decide against commencing or continuing with any action, or in respect of any actions taken or not taken in connection with any legal action.
12. Third party products will be registered in our name or the name of our nominee. You will have to rely on us to credit your account with us with payments and securities received by us or our nominee on your behalf from the issuer, to distribute notices our nominee received from the issuer, and to relay your communications to the issuer.
13. If your application for a product is not successful in whole or part, the purchase money will be returned to you without interest by the issuer through us or our nominee.
14. The market value of products shown on your monthly statement may only represent their nominal value. The proceeds which you may obtain on selling a product prior to its maturity (if there is a buyer), and the proceeds or value of any securities which you may obtain at maturity, may be less than the face value of the product (possibly significantly, depending on market conditions). In the absence of manifest error, the register maintained by the issuer may be definitive as to holdings of the relevant product.
15. You agree that we may provide your personal information to the issuer and its agents and affiliates, and to regulatory or government authorities (in or outside Hong Kong) pursuant to any applicable law, regulation or directive.

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

GENERAL

Investments involve risks. This brief statement does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of trading in investments. In light of the risks, you should undertake a Transaction only if you have thoroughly read and fully understood these Conditions, the relevant offer documents, the nature of the contract (and contractual relationships) into which you are entering and the extent of your exposure to risk. Trading in investment products is not suitable for many members of the public. You should carefully consider whether the Transaction is suitable for you in the light of your financial situation, investment experience, investment objectives and other relevant circumstances. You are strongly advised to seek independent professional advice if you are uncertain or have not understood any aspect of these Conditions (including these Risks Disclosure Statements), the relevant offer documents or the nature and risks of any Transaction.

Investments involve risks of loss to their principal. Transactions are "non transferable" and it may be impossible for you to close out or liquidate them. Investments are not bank deposits and are not endorsed or guaranteed by us, and do not constitute our obligations or the obligations of our subsidiaries, associates or affiliated companies.

Notwithstanding any communication that each party (or its affiliates or agents) may have had with the other party, you acknowledge that:

(a) you have been given the opportunity to obtain information from us concerning each Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you are not relying on any communication (written or oral) from us or our affiliates as (i) legal, regulatory, tax, business, investment, financial, accounting or other advice, (ii) recommendation to enter into the Transaction or (iii) assurance or guarantee as to the expected results of the Transaction. Any such communication should not be the basis on which you entered into the Transaction, and should be independently confirmed by you prior to entering into the Transaction; and

(b) we and our affiliates may have banking or other commercial relationships with the issuer of any investment or any other person and may engage in proprietary trading in the investment or any related options, futures, derivatives or other instruments (including such trading as we or our affiliates deem appropriate in our or their sole discretion to hedge our or their market risk on any Transaction and other transactions with you or with third parties), and such trading may affect the price of the investment and consequently the amounts payable or deliverable under a Transaction. Such trading may be affected at any time.

You confirm to us that you have sufficient knowledge and experience to be able to evaluate the merits and risks of entering into each transaction, are acting in reliance solely upon your own judgment or upon professional advice obtained independently of us as to those merits and risks (including, where relevant, the tax and accounting treatment of each transaction) and are not relying upon our views or advice.

RISK OF INVESTMENT

The prices of investment fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of an investment may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling investments.

In certain circumstances, your right to redeem or sell or otherwise dispose of an investment may be restricted or your ability to do so may be limited, inhibited or restricted in certain manner.

(Where past performance is quoted) the past performance figures shown are not indicative of future performance.

RISK OF MARGIN TRADING

The risk of loss in margin trading can be substantial. You may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. Placing contingent order, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders, will not necessarily avoid losses or limit losses to the intended amounts. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin deposits or interest payments. If the required margin deposits or interest payments are not provided within the prescribed time, your position may be liquidated. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account and interest charged on your account. A demand for additional deposit is not a precondition to and does not in any way limit our right to liquidate your open positions according to the relevant terms and conditions. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in the light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

STRUCTURED DEPOSITS

Structured deposits are not the same as, and should not be treated as a substitute or alternative for, normal time deposit.

EQUITY-LINKED DEPOSITS

The interest which may be payable on an equity-linked deposit is generally higher than the interest on an ordinary time deposit. However, this carries with it higher risks. The risks which you will assume depend on the structure and terms of the equity-linked deposit. You accept a legal obligation to take the underlying shares at the pre-agreed price instead of receiving the principal of the deposit, if the price of the underlying shares falls below the pre-agreed price. You will therefore receive shares that have fallen in value. You will lose the entire deposit if the underlying shares become worthless such as in the case of a liquidation or dissolution. The amount of gain may be limited no matter how high the price of the underlying shares has risen.

Equity-linked deposits are intended to be held to maturity. You may not transfer or terminate an equity-linked deposit without our prior written consent, and could incur significant losses in closing a transaction before maturity.

CURRENCY-LINKED DEPOSITS

The interest which may be payable on a currency-linked deposit is generally higher than the interest on an ordinary time deposit. However, this carries with it higher risks. The risks which you will assume depend on the structure and terms of the currency-linked deposit. The actual return on a currency-linked deposit will depend on the market conditions at the fixing time and at maturity. You must be prepared to risk any loss as a result of depreciation in the value of the currency which may be paid to you. In certain circumstances, you may lose all or part of the principal and/or interest of the currency-linked deposit.

Currency-linked deposits are intended to be held to maturity. You may not transfer or terminate a currency-linked deposit without our prior written consent, and could incur significant losses in closing a transaction before maturity.

RISK OF TRADING OPTIONS

The risk of loss in trading options is substantial. In some circumstances, you may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. Where applicable, placing contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders, will not necessarily avoid loss. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to deposit additional margin funds. If the required funds are not provided within the prescribed time, your position may be liquidated. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account. You should therefore study and understand options before you trade and carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in the light of your own financial position and investment objectives. Independent financial and legal advice should be sought if necessary. If you trade options you should inform yourself of exercise and expiration procedures and your rights and obligations upon exercise or expiry.

The value of an investment with embedded options fluctuates, sometimes dramatically. The price of an investment may move up or down and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling an investment. The payout on an investment may be linked to the value or performance of an underlying security, index, fund, asset or a combination of the foregoing. You may lose your entire investment or receive, in place of any redemption proceeds, underlying security the market value of which may be significantly lower than your original investment.

Variable degree of risk

Transactions in options carry a high degree of risk. Purchasers and sellers of options should familiarise themselves with the type of option (i.e. put or call) which they contemplate trading and the associated risks. You should calculate the extent to which the value of the options must increase for your position to become profitable, taking into account the premium and all transaction costs.

The purchaser of options may offset or exercise the options or allow the options to expire. The exercise of an option results either in a cash settlement or in the purchaser acquiring or delivering the underlying interest. If the purchased options expire worthless, you will suffer a total loss of your investment which will consist of the option premium plus transaction costs. If you are contemplating purchasing deep-out-of-the-money options, you should be aware that the chance of such options becoming profitable ordinarily is remote.

Selling ("writing" or "granting") an option generally entails considerably greater risk than purchasing options. Although the premium received by the seller is fixed, the seller may sustain a loss well in excess of that amount. The seller will be liable for additional margin to maintain the position if the market moves unfavourably. The seller will also be exposed to the risk of the purchaser exercising the option and the seller will be obligated to either settle the option in cash or to acquire or deliver the underlying interest. If the option is "covered" by the seller holding a corresponding position in the underlying interest or another option, the risk may be reduced. If the option is not covered, the risk of loss can be unlimited.

Certain exchanges in some jurisdictions permit deferred payment of the option premium, exposing the purchaser to liability for margin payments not exceeding the amount of the premium. The purchaser is still subject to the risk of losing the premium and transaction costs. When the option is exercised or expires, the purchaser is responsible for any unpaid premium outstanding at that time.

Terms and conditions of contracts

You should ask the firm with which you deal about the terms and conditions of the specific options which you are trading and associated obligations (e.g. the circumstances under which you may become obliged to make or take delivery of the underlying interest, and expiration dates and restrictions on the time for exercise). Under certain circumstances the specifications of outstanding contracts (including the exercise price of an option) may be modified by the exchange or clearing house to reflect changes in the underlying interest.

Suspension or restriction of trading and pricing relationships

Market conditions (e.g. illiquidity) and/or the operation of the rules of certain markets (e.g. the suspension of trading in any contract or contract month because of price limits or "circuit breakers") may increase the risk of loss by making it difficult or impossible to effect transactions or liquidate/offset positions. If you have sold options, this may increase the risk of loss.

Further, normal pricing relationships between the underlying interest and the option may not exist. The absence of an underlying reference price may make it difficult to judge "fair value".

Deposited cash and property

You should be familiarised with the protections given to money or other property you deposit for domestic and foreign transactions, particularly in the event of a firm insolvency or bankruptcy. The extent to which you may recover your money or property may be governed by specific legislation or local rules. In some jurisdictions, property which had been specifically identifiable as your own will be pro-rated in the same manner as cash for purposes of distribution in the event of a shortfall.

Commission and other charges

Before you begin to trade, you should obtain a clear explanation of all commission, fees and other charges for which you will be liable. These charges will affect your net profit (if any) or increase your loss.

Transactions in other jurisdictions

Transactions on markets in other jurisdictions, including markets formally linked to a domestic market, may expose you to additional risk. Such markets may be subject to regulation which may offer different or diminished investor protection. Before you trade you should enquire about any rules relevant to your particular transactions. Your local regulatory authority will be unable to compel the enforcement of the rules of regulatory authorities or markets in other jurisdictions where your transactions have been effected. You should ask the firm with which you deal for details about the types of redress available in both your home jurisdiction and other relevant jurisdictions before you start to trade.

Currency risks

The profit or loss in transactions in foreign currency-denominated contracts (whether they are traded in your own or another jurisdiction) will be affected by fluctuations in currency rates where there is a need to convert from the currency denomination of the contract to another currency.

Trading facilities

Electronic trading facilities are supported by computer-based component systems for the order-routing, execution, matching, registration or clearing of trades. As with all facilities and systems, they are vulnerable to temporary disruption or failure. Your ability to recover certain losses may be subject to limits on liability imposed by the system provider, the market, the clearing house and/or participant firms. Such limits may vary: you should ask the firm with which you deal for details in this respect.

Electronic trading and transmission of information

Trading or receiving/sending information on an electronic trading system may differ from trading or receiving/sending information on other electronic trading systems. If you undertake Transactions on, or receives and/or sends data, instructions and/or other information (including confirmations, statements and receipts) over, an electronic trading system, you will be exposed to risks associated with the system including the failure of hardware and software. The result of any system failure may be that your order is either not executed according to your instructions, or that the data, instructions and/or other such information is not received and/or sent accurately, or in each case, not at all.

Off-exchange transactions

In some jurisdictions, and only then in restricted circumstances, firms are permitted to effect off-exchange transactions. The firm with which you deal may be acting as your counterparty to the transaction. It may be difficult or impossible to liquidate an existing position, to assess the value, to determine a fair price or to assess the exposure to risk. For these reasons, these transactions may involve increased risks. Off-exchange transactions may be less regulated or subject to a separate regulatory regime. Before you undertake such transactions, you should be familiarised with applicable rules and attendant risks.

RISK OF LEVERAGED FOREIGN EXCHANGE TRADING

The risk of loss in leveraged foreign exchange trading can be substantial. You may sustain losses in excess of your initial margin funds. Where applicable placing contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders, will not necessarily limit losses to the intended amounts. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders. You may be called upon at short notice to deposit additional margin funds. If the required funds are not provided within the prescribed time, your position may be liquidated. You will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account. You should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in the light of your own financial position and investment objectives.

RISK OF TRADING GROWTH ENTERPRISE MARKET STOCKS

Growth Enterprise Market (GEM) stocks involve a high investment risk. In particular, companies may list on GEM with neither a track record of profitability nor any obligation to forecast future profitability. GEM stocks may be very volatile and illiquid.

You should make the decision to invest only after due and careful consideration. The greater risk profile and other characteristics of GEM mean that it is a market more suited to professional and other sophisticated investors.

Current information on GEM stocks may only be found on the internet website operated by The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. GEM Companies are usually not required to issue paid announcements in gazetted newspapers.

You should seek independent professional advice if you are uncertain of or have not understood any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the nature and risks involved in trading of GEM stocks.

RISK OF FUNDS AND UNIT TRUSTS

Investment in funds or unit trusts is different to placing moneys on deposit with a bank. The funds or unit trusts are not deposits or other obligations of, or guaranteed by, our affiliates or us. The fund company or unit trust manager is under no obligation to redeem shares in any fund or unit trust at the price at which they were issued. Although we may not charge a fee for providing services relating to funds or unit trusts, we will normally be paid a commission or rebate by the fund or unit trust manager for arranging transactions involving funds or unit trusts.

Since some markets in which some of the funds or unit trusts invest may be subject to a higher than usual risk of political or economic instability, the assets of and income from such funds or unit trusts may be affected unfavorably by fluctuations in currency rates, exchange control and fiscal regulations and as a result, the shares of these funds and unit trusts may be subject to substantial price volatility. Some markets may not be subject to accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards and practices comparable to those applicable in more advanced countries, and there may be less government supervision, legal regulation and less well defined tax laws and procedures than in countries with more advanced securities markets.

Certain funds or unit trusts may invest in higher yielding securities rated lower than investment grade. Below investment grade securities such as, for example, high yield debt securities, may be considered speculative and can include securities that are unrated or in default. As a result, investment in these funds or unit trusts are accompanied by a higher degree of credit risk than is present in investment in higher rated, lower yielding securities.

You should carefully consider prior to investing in funds or unit trusts, (a) the possible tax consequences, (b) the legal requirements and (c) any foreign exchange control requirements which you might encounter under the laws of the countries of your incorporation, citizenship, residence or domicile and which might be relevant to the purchase, sale, subscription, holding, conversion or disposal of the shares in funds or unit trusts.

The market for technology or technology-related funds or unit trusts can be highly volatile and in many cases their prices may reflect market speculation rather than the underlying economic value of such funds or unit trusts.

Certain capital guaranteed/capital preserved funds or unit trusts may be subject to terms and conditions, and redemption of shares in the funds or unit trusts prior to fulfilling all the terms and conditions specified in the offering documents or prospectus may be subject to market fluctuations or a redemption fee. Capital guaranteed/capital preserved funds or unit trusts are not guaranteed by us or our affiliates.

RISK OF EXCHANGE TRADED FUNDS (ETF)

An ETF is a fund. It is exposed to the economic, political, currency, legal and other risks of the sector or market related to the index that it is tracking. A synthetic ETF may invest in over-the-counter derivatives issued by counterparties. It is exposed to the risks of the securities that constitute the index and the credit risk of such counterparties, and may suffer losses potentially equal to the full value of the derivatives issued by the counterparty upon its default. A number of different counterparties may be used in order to diversify the counterparty credit risk concentration. However, the more counterparties an ETF has, the higher the mathematical probability of the ETF being affected by a counterparty default. The issuers of these derivatives are predominantly international financial institutions and this, in itself, may pose a concentration risk. It is possible that the failure of one derivative counterparty has a "knock-on" effect on other derivative counterparties of the ETF. Some synthetic ETFs have collateral to reduce the counterparty risk, but there may be a risk of the market value of the collateral falling substantially when the ETF seeks to realise the collateral. A higher liquidity risk is involved if an ETF uses financial derivative instruments which do not have an active secondary market. Bigger bid and offer spreads in the price of the derivatives may result in losses.

There may be a disparity between the performance of the ETF and the performance of the underlying index due to, e.g., failure of the tracking strategy, foreign exchange differences, fees and expenses. Where the index or market that an ETF tracks has restricted access, units in the ETF may not be created or redeemed freely and efficiently. An ETF may trade at a price higher or lower than its net asset value (NAV). In the event the ETF is terminated, investors who buy at a premium would not be able to recover the premium.

An ETF may be subject to tax imposed by the local authorities in the market related to the index that it tracks, emerging market risks and risks in relation to the change of policy of the reference market.

RISK OF WARRANTS

Warrants are complicated, high-risk instruments suitable only for experienced investors. They offer a leveraged exposure to movements in their underlying stock, but factors in addition to the underlying stock price affect warrant prices. The price of a warrant may fluctuate more than the underlying stock price does. Although leverage may give you a higher return, it also exposes you to a higher risk. Warrants become valueless after their expiry date, or if it is out-of-the-money on the expiry day. You will assume the credit risk of the issuer. The risks of holding warrants are higher than those of holding the underlying stock. You should consider carefully whether a warrant is suitable for you in the light of your experience, investment objectives and financial position. You should read the listing documents and understand the risks, the return profile, the terms and conditions, and seek professional financial advice if you have any doubt.

RISK OF CALLABLE BULL / BEAR CONTRACTS (CBBC)

CBBCs are complicated, leveraged instruments suitable only for experienced investors. They offer a leveraged exposure to movements in their underlying stock or index, but the price movement of a CBBC may not exactly match that of the underlying asset when the underlying price is very close to the call price. Although leverage may give you a higher return, it also exposes you to a higher risk. You may lose all your investment. Some CBBCs may pay nothing if they are called. CBBCs are not designed to be long-term investments. You will assume the credit risk of the issuer. You should consider carefully whether a CBBC is suitable for you in the light of your experience, investment objectives and financial position. You should read the listing documents and understand the risks, the return profile, the call feature, the expiry date, the terms and conditions, and seek professional financial advice if you have any doubt.

SAVINGS PLAN

There may not be an active market for odd lots, and odd lots may only be sold at a price substantially less than board lots. We may not be able to buy for you investments in the required or any quantity. A long term plan may become unsuitable for you by reason of changes in the underlying investments or in your circumstances.

RISK OF PROVIDING AN AUTHORITY TO REPLEDGE YOUR SECURITIES COLLATERAL ETC.

There is risk if you provide us with an authority that allows us to apply your securities or securities collateral pursuant to a securities borrowing and lending agreement, repledge your securities collateral for financial accommodation or deposit your securities collateral as collateral for the discharge and satisfaction of our settlement obligations and liabilities.

If your securities or securities collateral are received or held by us in Hong Kong, the above arrangement is allowed only if you consent in writing. Moreover, unless you are a professional investor, your authority must specify the person for which it is current and be limited to not more than 12 months. If you are a professional investor, these restrictions do not apply.

Additionally, your authority may be deemed to be renewed (i.e. without your written consent) if we issue you a reminder at least 14 days prior to the expiry of the authority, and you do not object to such deemed renewal before the expiry date of your then existing authority.

You are not required by any law to sign these authorities. But an authority may be required by us, for example, to allow your securities or securities collateral to be lent to or deposited as collateral with third parties. We should explain to you the purposes for which one of these authorities is to be used.

If you sign one of these authorities and your securities or securities collateral are lent to or deposited with third parties, those third parties will have a lien or charge on your securities or securities collateral. Although we are responsible to you for securities or securities collateral lent or deposited under your authority, a default by us could result in the loss of your securities or securities collateral.

A cash account not involving securities borrowing and lending is available from us. If you do not require margin facilities or do not wish your securities or securities collateral to be lent or pledged, do not sign the above authorities and ask to open this type of cash account.
