

招商銀行集團成員
Member CMB Group

Alert to the Public and Customers Regarding the Telesales Marketing Activities Conducted by Intermediaries

Wing Lung Bank (“the Bank”) has not authorised or appointed any intermediaries to conduct telesales marketing activities for promotion of unsecured personal loans such as personal loan, tax loan and SME loan. If the caller claims to be from Wing Lung Bank or other financial institutions and invites applications for personal loan, tax loan or SME loan, it may be a suspected unauthorized telesales calls. The public and customers are advised not to disclose any sensitive personal information or make any payment to the caller.

The Bank once again reminds that where the public and customers are suspicious about the identity of the callers, they should request for the callers’ contact numbers and information and verify with the Bank. If the public and customers are in doubt that sensitive personal information may be disclosed to suspicious callers, please report to the Bank and report such case to the Police immediately. For enquiry, please contact our Customer Services Hotline at 230 95555.

Wing Lung Bank Limited
10 March 2017